Our year dawned,
a bright beginning,
the first day
of the rest of our lives.

We seek the freedom to be all that we can be.

To see ourselves as we would like to be.

What is real to us are the things we create.

We discover our knowledge is a noble goal in itself

Early A.M.

This year, many organizations, such as Band, Belles, and Choir, are here early to practice.
1. Sherri Carr and Montie Roper are up bright and early putting the final touches on a locker.
2. Terri Harris and Abby Yates know that practice makes perfect.
3. Jim Kelly, caught lying down on the job.
4. Karen Anderson explains just who she really is.
5. "Why am I here?" wonders Dawn Dodson.
6. Rudy Saldivar marvels at the increasing price of donuts.
7. Niki Jaeger, Dennis McBride, and Cheri Tankersley, Blow, Blow, Blow.

Sleepy Faces in the Morning

Before School starts at 8:15 many students come half asleep to conquer another day. 1. "First period — Algebra book, second — nothing, a film, and third — my French book" says Bobby Corbell. 2. Renee Manuel asks herself "Why am I here?" 3. Ken Hooper longs to go back to sleep. 4. Chester Scott obviously got up on the wrong side of the bed. 5. Coach Clayton Brooks and Coach Ray Haas are on duty before school. 6. "Whose idea was it to come to school this early, anyway?" asks John Bilas.

During the early morning hours, students have many interests. The swimming and diving teams meet every morning at Eastgate for a workout, and band and choir have sectionals. 1. Mary Scott does the backstroke. 2. Julie Douglas is up early to perfect her performance. 3. Jill Kennedy and Cindy Hornbuckle are at the school early for a choir sectional. 4. Tricia Patrick practices the piano before school. 5. Rick Scott butterflies all the way. 6. Matt Mills says, "Geronimooo!"

In the early morning hours, students have several activities to attend before the school day begins. Some of these activities include participating in a club breakfast and practicing for band or choir. 1. "Thank Heaven this locker is nearly finished," smiles Melinda Garner. 2. Vicki Allen smiles "Good Morning" for the camera. 3. Taped to the wall during Homecoming is the Mu Alpha Theta symbol. 4. For Connie Pennington at 7:00 in the morning, it's not fun to be at "attention." 5. Kelly Wells, Darlene Eckiss, and Russell Page enjoy an early morning club breakfast. 6. Sitting through another choir sectional are Helena Lyczak, Janet Wiler, and Karen Brown.

As another day begins students study for tests, catch up on the latest news, and finish their homework. 1. They went that away! says Tammy Barker. 2. Marcus Vaden says, "Come on, you can't fool me with that water pistol in a camera trick!" 3. Hold it right there; now smile, Alisa Britton. 4. Terry Miller says, "But three can't equal four! HELP!!" 5. Todd Mestemacher — "Who . . . me?" 6. Rhonda Reeves, don't look so shocked there are only 6 hours left. 7. "Oh my! I forgot to do my first period homework" says Brian Willard. 8. Lowell Kindrick waits impatiently for the halls to open.

The Beginning of Another Day

Why

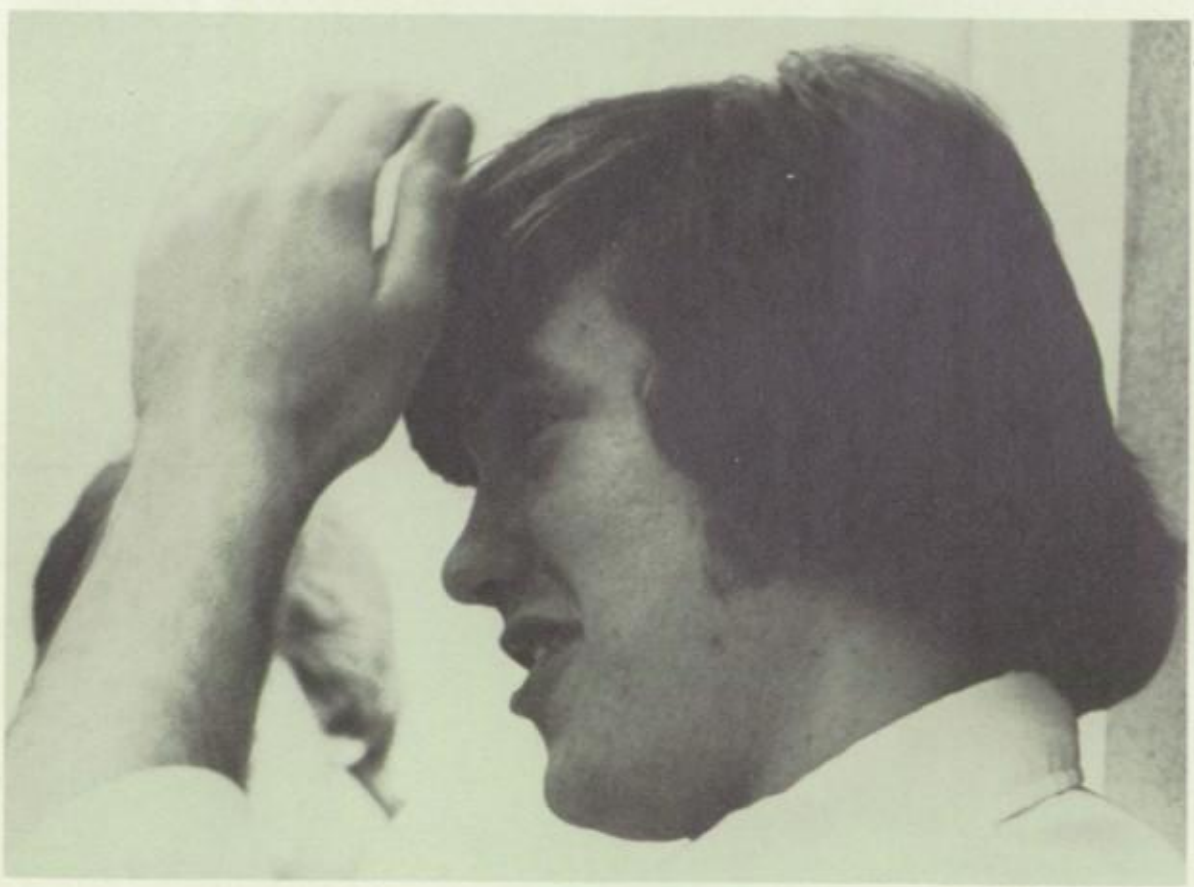
So

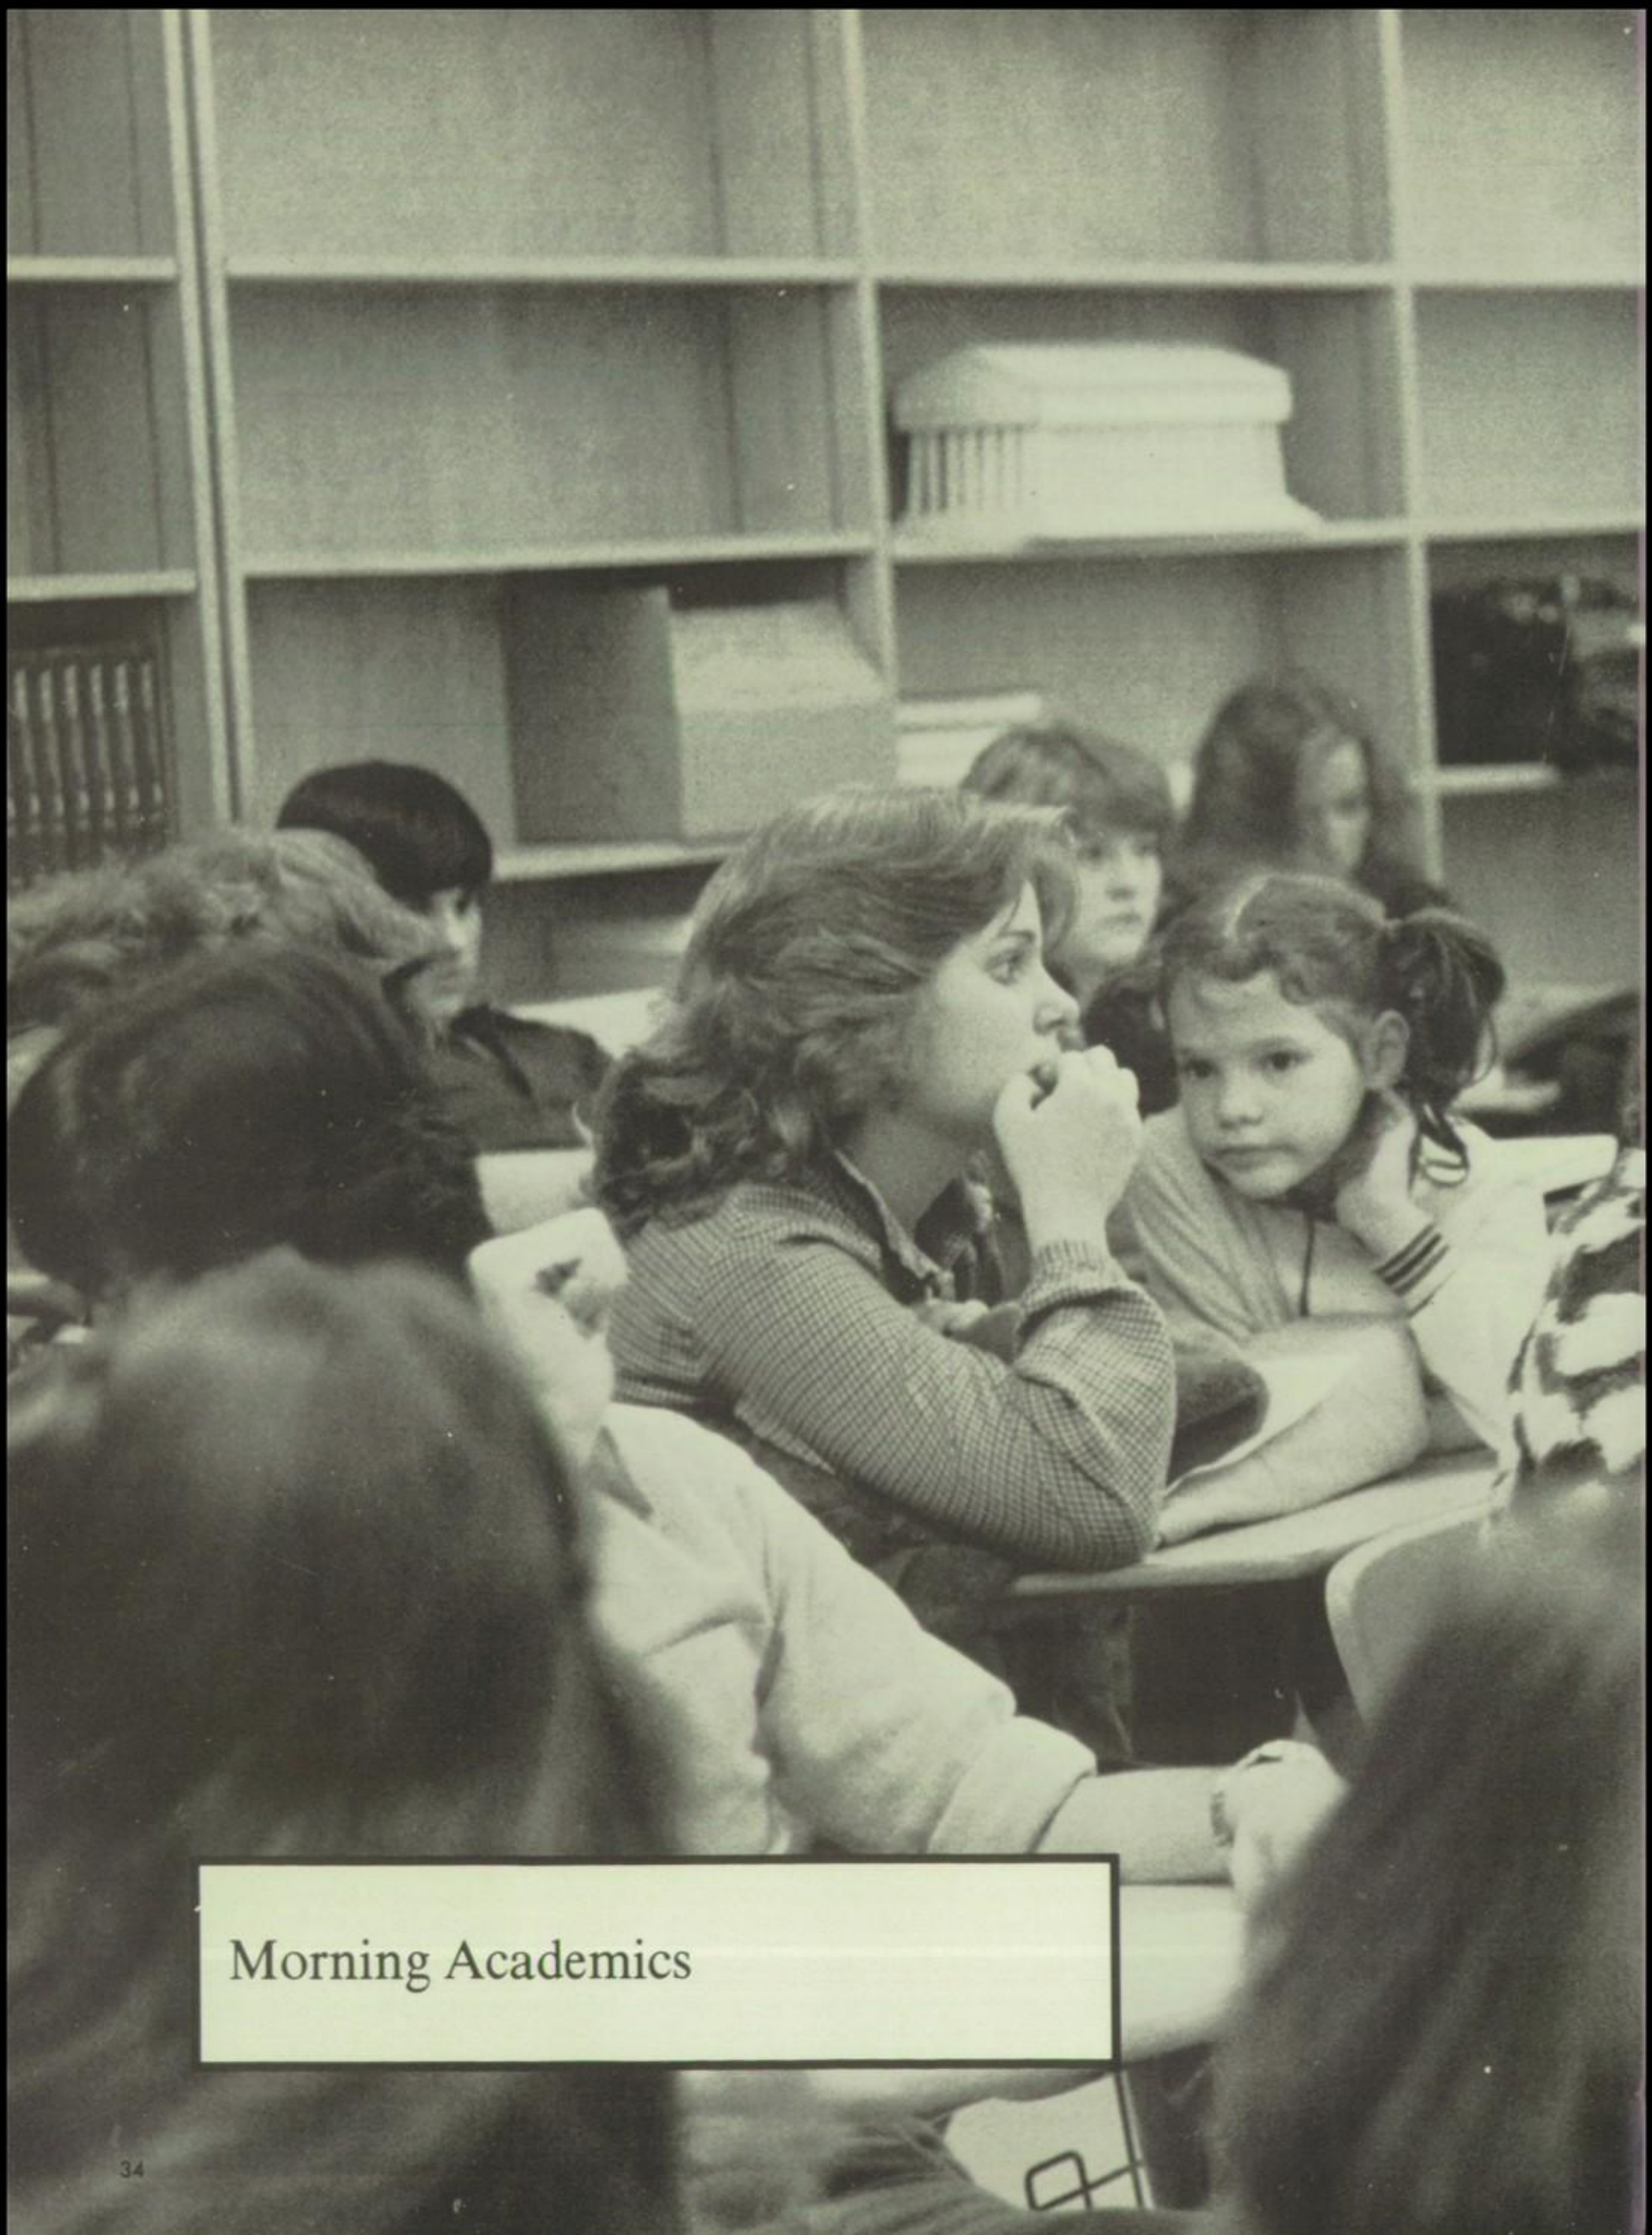
Early?

Before school is the time for students to do many things. Some take make-up tests, others get their absentee slips, and others just stand around waiting for the halls to open and discussing what happened on Roots II last night. 1. Mrs. Georgann Bowden and Mr. Joe Wetzel fill out admission slips before school. 2. Coach Ricky Arthur supervises the halls before classes. 3. Dean Patterson says, "I'm glad it's Friday!" 4. Jan Fuller is wide awake and full of smiles. 5. Mrs. Beverly Winne takes the time to talk to Judy Evans before class starts. 6. "Please, I'm not ready for this yet today!" pleads David Loyd. 7. Kirk Braley says, "8:15 gets earlier every morning."

Homework and the Tardy Bell

As 8:20 gets closer and closer, the students at S.G. begin to head for their classes. The parking lot begins to get empty, and unfinished homework from the night before is pulled out. 1. Kevin Stone says, "I'd enjoy the morning more if it started later. 2. Mr. Irby Martin and Ms. Susie Skinner anxiously await their first period class. 3. Cathy Bustos says, "Nobody told me 8:20. I thought we were supposed to be here at 7:30." 4. The parking lot begins to fill up with cars as it gets nearer to the tardy bell. 5. Theresa Thomas says, "The hip bone connects to the knee bone, the knee bone connects to the ankle bone, — Gee! Biology is lotsa fun!" 6. Jeff Fodge says, "Good grief! I forgot my homework!" 7. Ali Oktay says, "Today is Thursday. That means only one more day 'til there's one more day 'til Saturday!"

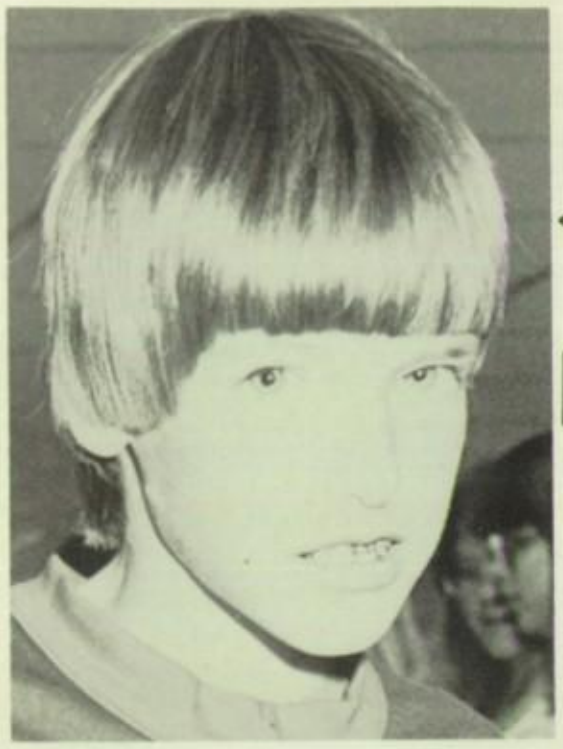




Morning Academics

The major part of a student's morning hours is spent studying, sleeping, and taking tests or notes.
1. Sherrie Bell will use any excuse to distract her from her history assignment.
2. Troy Ratterree, the Dedicated Student of the Year, studies literature for his second period class.
3. Kim Corley takes time out from her morning for an orthodontist appointment.
4. "Hey!" says Rusty Roberts, "I'm a magician!" as he pulls a pencil from Terri Carter's ear.
5. Debra Null, Future Homemaker.
6. Jennifer Simko directs her attentions to pinning up the posters.

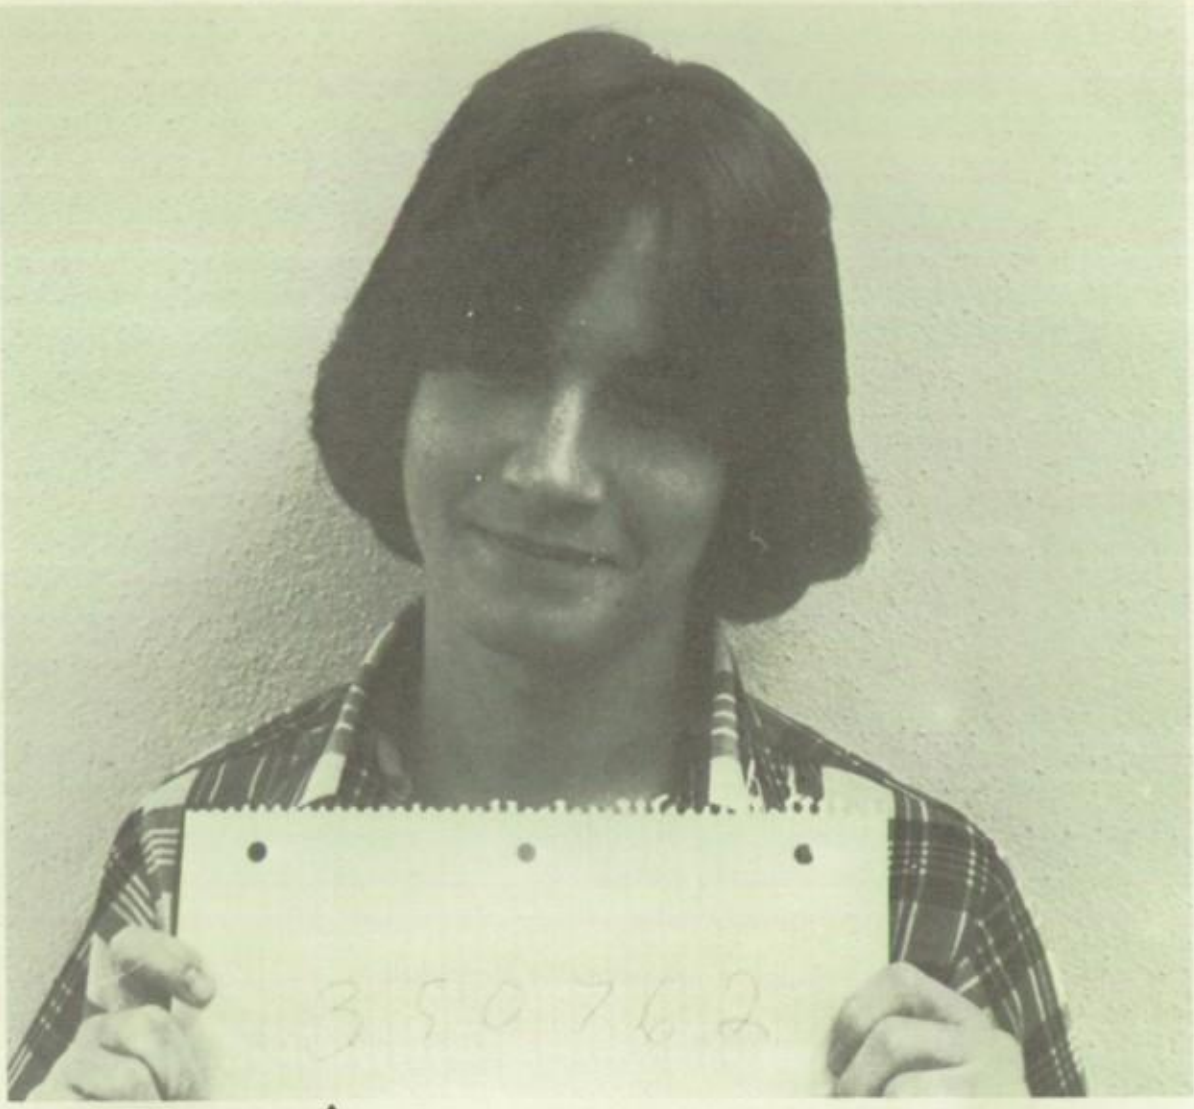
We Would Rather Be Sleeping!



With the freshman class, Morning Academics doesn't necessarily mean "academics", just morning. 1. "They told me I could buy an elevator pass here . . ." says Vaughan Garrett. 2. Matt Mills thinks, "Maybe if I tilt my head just right she won't be able to tell that I'm asleep." 3. Don't worry Richard Edge the operation will be over soon. 4. Bill Sheldon flies high with the greatest of ease. 5. Kelly Chumley, Lisa Barnard, Richard Smith, Tina Hurley, and Sally Coldwell look on as Melissa Stindig shows us just why we should vote for her in the freshman class elections. 6. Jill Hicks is happy her speech is over, while Kim Goll anxiously awaits her turn. 7. Jeff Bolton demonstrates why he should have starred in "The Invasion of the Body Snatchers."

A Typical Morning in the Life of the Freshman

Let's Get Started!



Most students feel that homework is the crabgrass in the lawn of life, so they do it during school hours. 1. John Zimmerman says, "No these are not my measurements." 2. "You've got to be kidding! You expect me to learn all of this?" asks Kathy Pegne. 3. Richard Terry explains to a freshman that he just can't sit there. 4. Terry Glover enjoys cutting up frogs before lunch. 5. Danny David says, "Wanna arm wrestle?" 6. Mary Aleman stops to get her books out of her locker. 7. James Terrell awaits patiently for the verdict.

Sophomores smile their way through the A.M. to start the day out right. 1. Karren Williams awaits the bell for break. 2. Betty Novo and Lina Meza show their school morning spirit. 3. Laura Crumpley are you daydreaming again? 4. LaWanda McKenzie what evil lurks behind that sweet smile. 5. Christi Cloud, "I'm only smiling to keep from crying." 6. Angela Willis, "Be nice to me, it's only nine o'clock in the morning."

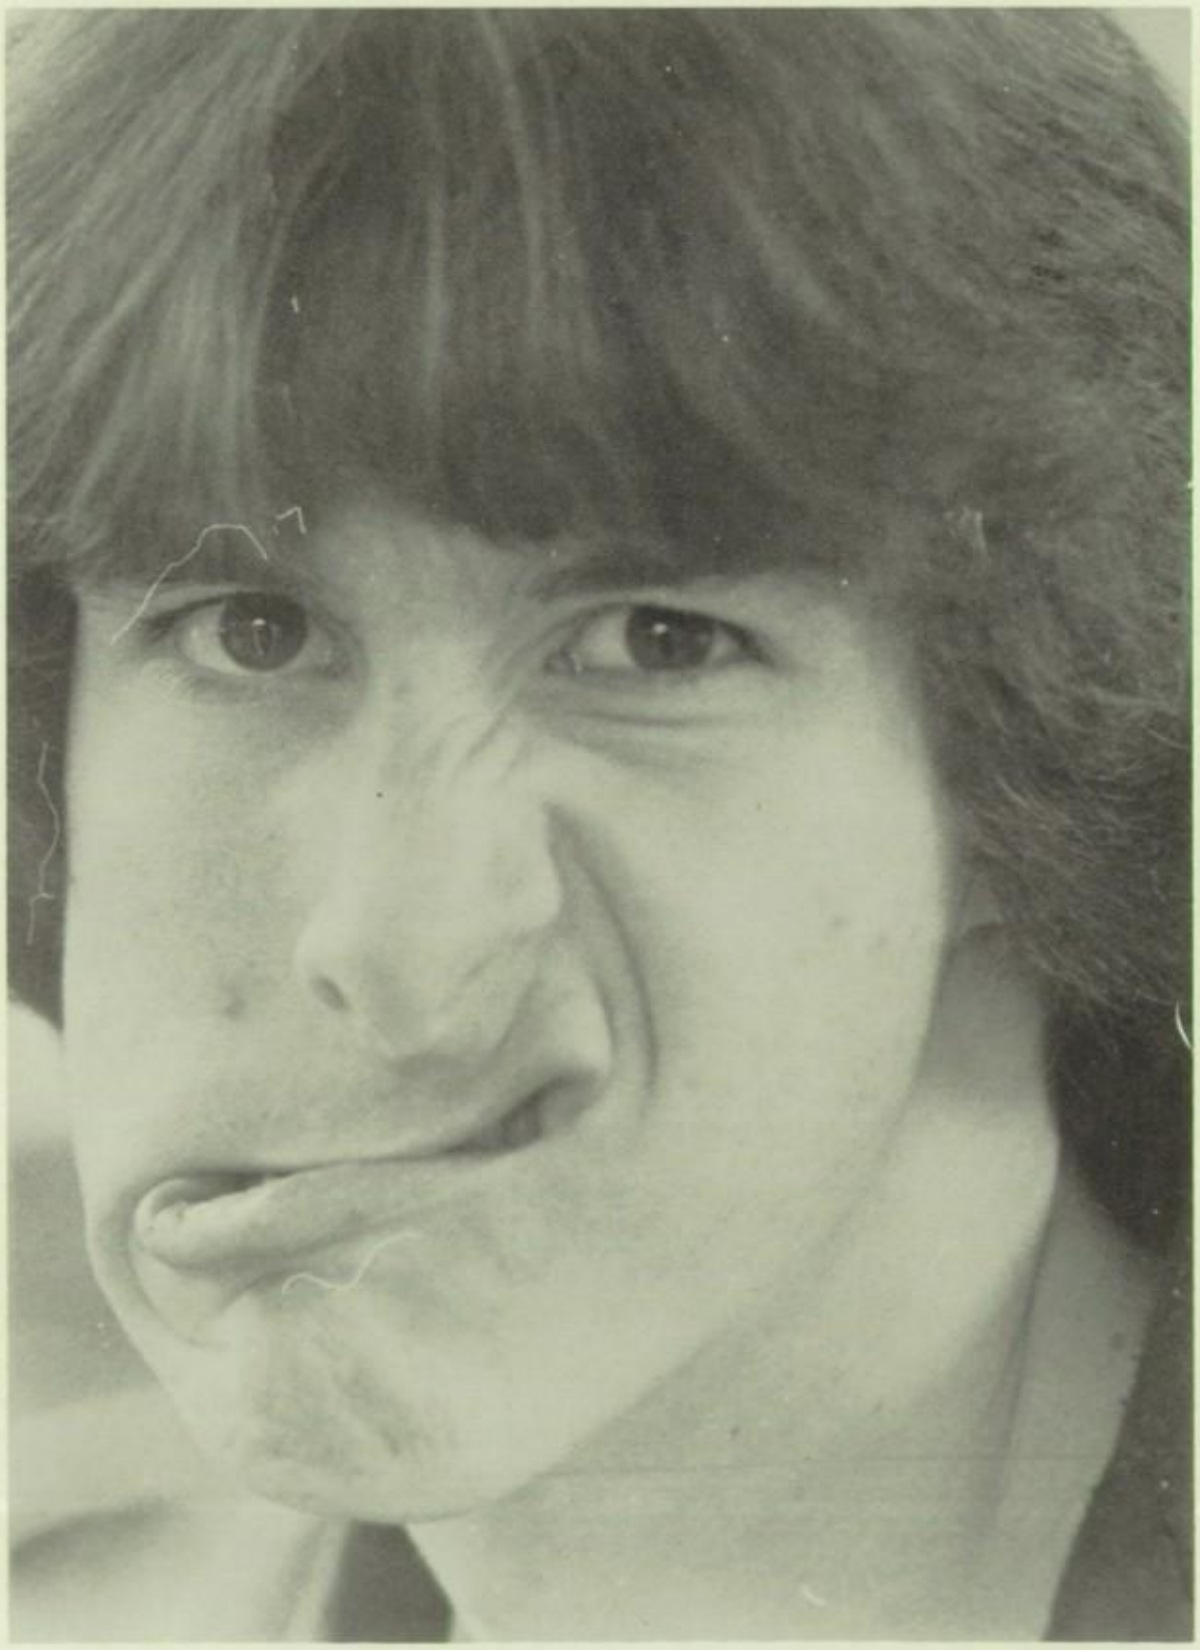
Assemblies and classroom work are a part of a regular routine for the S.G. student.

1. Elizabeth Martinez hopes for divine guidance on her next test.
2. Hey! Ben Spears and Steve Smithhart! Where were you at four o'clock this morning?
3. Why the long face, Janet Hanna?
4. Mr. Woolard cringes at the thought of giving away a hundred dollar bill.
5. Susan Rummel hates to clean out sinks; that's why she took cosmetology!
6. Don't worry, Mike Eades, photographers don't bite.

The Many Faces in a Student's Life

The day at South Garland begins with yawns, growls and even a few smiles from some strange people!

1. Doug Barnes before his morning coffee.
2. Skip Smith gives the two minute warning before going back to class.
3. Debbie Tait says, "Good morning!"
4. Which twin has the Toni, Mr. Baugh?
5. Karen Chamberlain doing her morning chores!
6. Kevin Ross says, "Two donuts — Two bites!!"
7. Marie Risher's pretty smile is the only way to start the day!



One More Day

Gets on Its Way

Even though some people wander around as if they are in a blue fog in the morning hours, others actually get things done! 1. Jimmy Fikes, Jay Ransom, David Yoes, Dean Gerard and David Withrow help Mr. John Brown work on the power tools. 2. Awww . . . did we disturb you, Jason Simon? 3. Robyn Sutton works hard on her trig test. 4. Chuck Bybee waits for his French test with baited breath. 5. Helena Lyczak stares in horror at the camera, while Holly Winsett keeps her from falling off the balance beam.

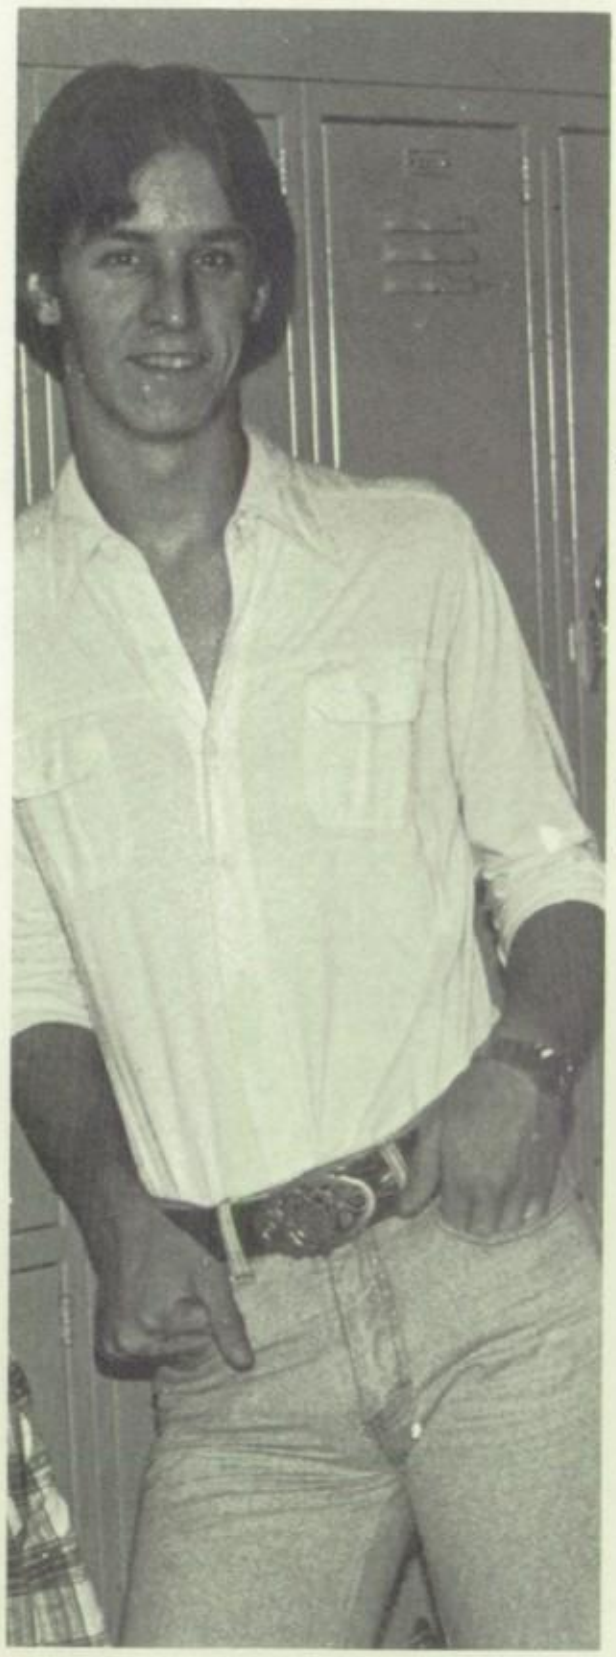
Here We Come World



Morning Comes Too Early

Many students find things other than studies to do during the morning academic hour.

1. John Morris finds a comfy place to sit wherever he is!
2. Terry Jackson and Debbie Hollingsworth work carefully on Cindy Denton to get it just right.
3. Brenda Brown gazes off into the sunset, instead of watching where she's going.
4. Lisa Chewning — hard at work.
5. Lisa Owens crouches in a corner to keep from having her picture taken.
6. "Wanna drink?" asks Misty Neatherly.

The Many Faces of Teachers

In the morning hours teachers are wide awake and full of smiles.

1. Mrs. Mary Burns says "The early bird dissects the worm."
2. Mrs. Joy Cody ponders over how to present Emily Dickinson to a sleepy class.
3. Mr. George Lyons marvels at the wonder of it all.
4. Ms. Mary Murray smiles at a break in her work.
5. Mr. Charlos Jefferies will go to any extremes to keep his third period physics class awake.
6. Mr. Don Adair informs a female student that wanting a class with more guys in it is not a valid reason for a schedule change.

Not everyone sleeps through first period!
1. Look! Can it be? A class — awake — on a Monday morning?
2. Jason Adamik is all smiles about sax and violins.
3. Varita Wilson, why aren't you paying attention?
4. Vicki Spencer, is Biology that frightening?
5. Pam Bellomy; Master Hair Stylist.
6. Carl Land, I bet you get A's in Daydreaming II.
7. Lisa Tolbert, is that you under all that hair?
8. Shunner MacGregor and Sandy Percella can't decide from which direction "Mr. Right" will come.

Life Before Lunch

Faces In the Morning

Books and practical functions are important in a student's morning academic hour.
1. Amy Yates, Cathy Dunn, Karyn Hackett, Lori Lee, Mrs. Lay, and Cindy Baxter have mixed emotions about working in the office.
2. Terri Eades thinks the photographer has cute lenses.
3. Cheryl O'Riley and Tom Landry watch the lunch people eating lunch in the courtyard.
4. Teresa Frances thinks that homework is fun, fun, fun!
5. Jimmy Whitten shows us his better side.
6. No, Shelly Eckeberger, there's nothing in your hair.
7. Aylin Nadolsky sings her little heart out.

A Break From Routine

Students find many ways to break up their morning activities.
1. Winona Shackelford is still a devoted Mousketeer.
2. Juniors Mark Tyler, Dean Davis, Andy Stephens, and Pam Bellomy cut up during an assembly.
3. "Don't tell me today is Saturday" says Angela Carroccia.
4. Sherri Hilley is caught in a tight squeeze.
5. Ann Hoffmire, Who's that behind those Foster Grants?
6. Becky Roll says, "You're the one that I want, you, . . . you . . . you . . .

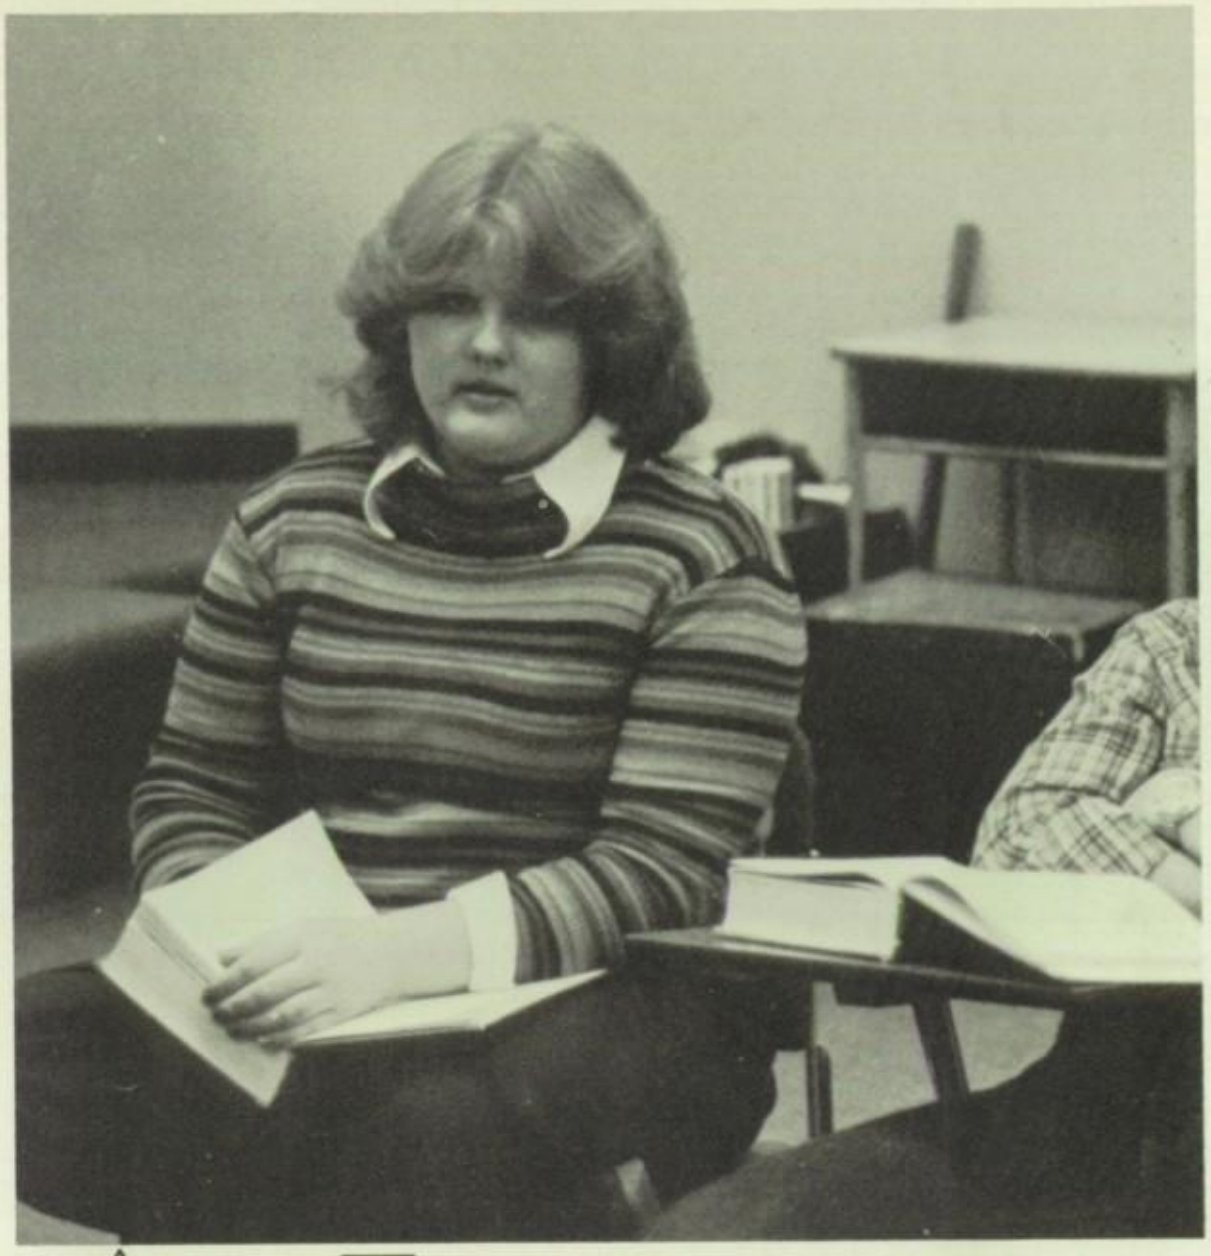
New Ideas Are Added to Traditions

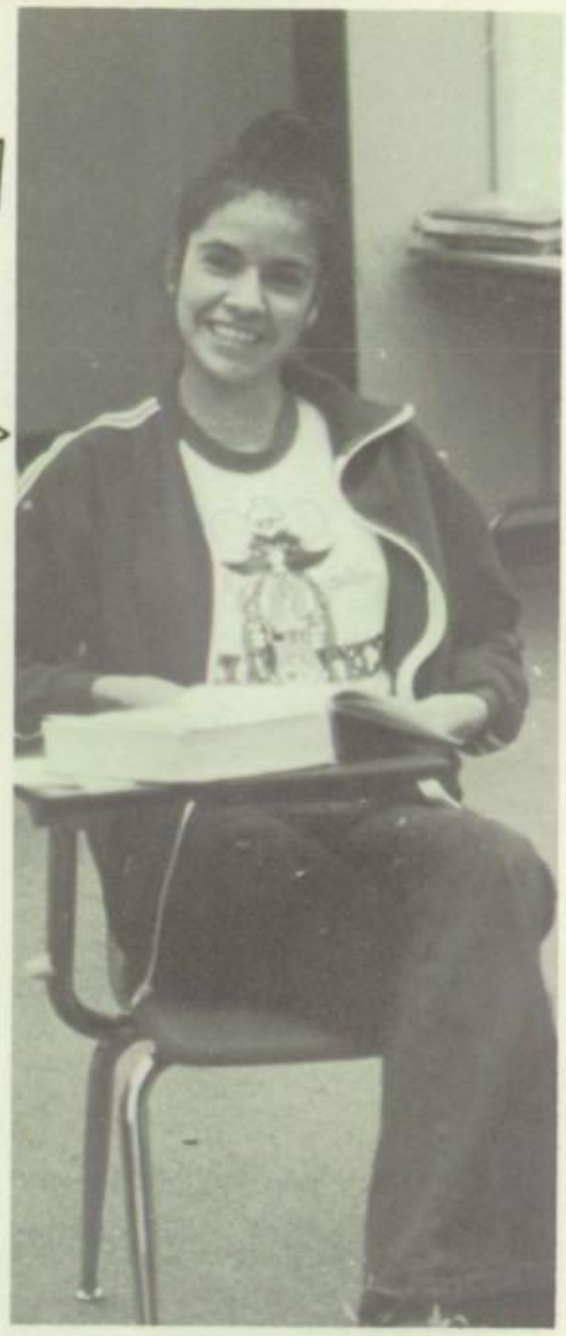
Most of the traditions at S.G. remained the same this year, while other new ideas were introduced. One of the traditions was the door decorating contest that took place during the week before Christmas. The prize winning door was Mr. Chuck Lytle's door, and many other "prizewinners" were produced.

1. "Christmas cheer from our reindeer," proclaims the door 229.
2. One of the new "sniffer dogs" that was used in many of Garland's schools.
3. The decorations on this door say, "Have a Tree — mendous Christmas."
4. Cindy Baxter does her homework during school hours.
5. Hey! Rich Copeland Who's that (ugh!) creature next to you? Lanny Smith? No!
6. Mark Summers and Mitch Smith are the picture of clean-cut America! Ha! Ha!

Friendly Faces at S.G.



Everywhere we look these days, we see a friendly face. S.G. students are looking happier every day. 1. Linda McLarty says "Hey! Do you have a license for that thing?" 2. Mike Insuaste asks "Have you got any film in your camera?" 3. Let us guess, Suzanne Hernandez, you're an Aggie fan. 4. Liz Williams, caught in the act. 5. Mike Shipley says "I'm not just another pretty face!" 6. Scot Harris says "Look ma! I can shoot all the triangles into the slots!"



Lunch Hour

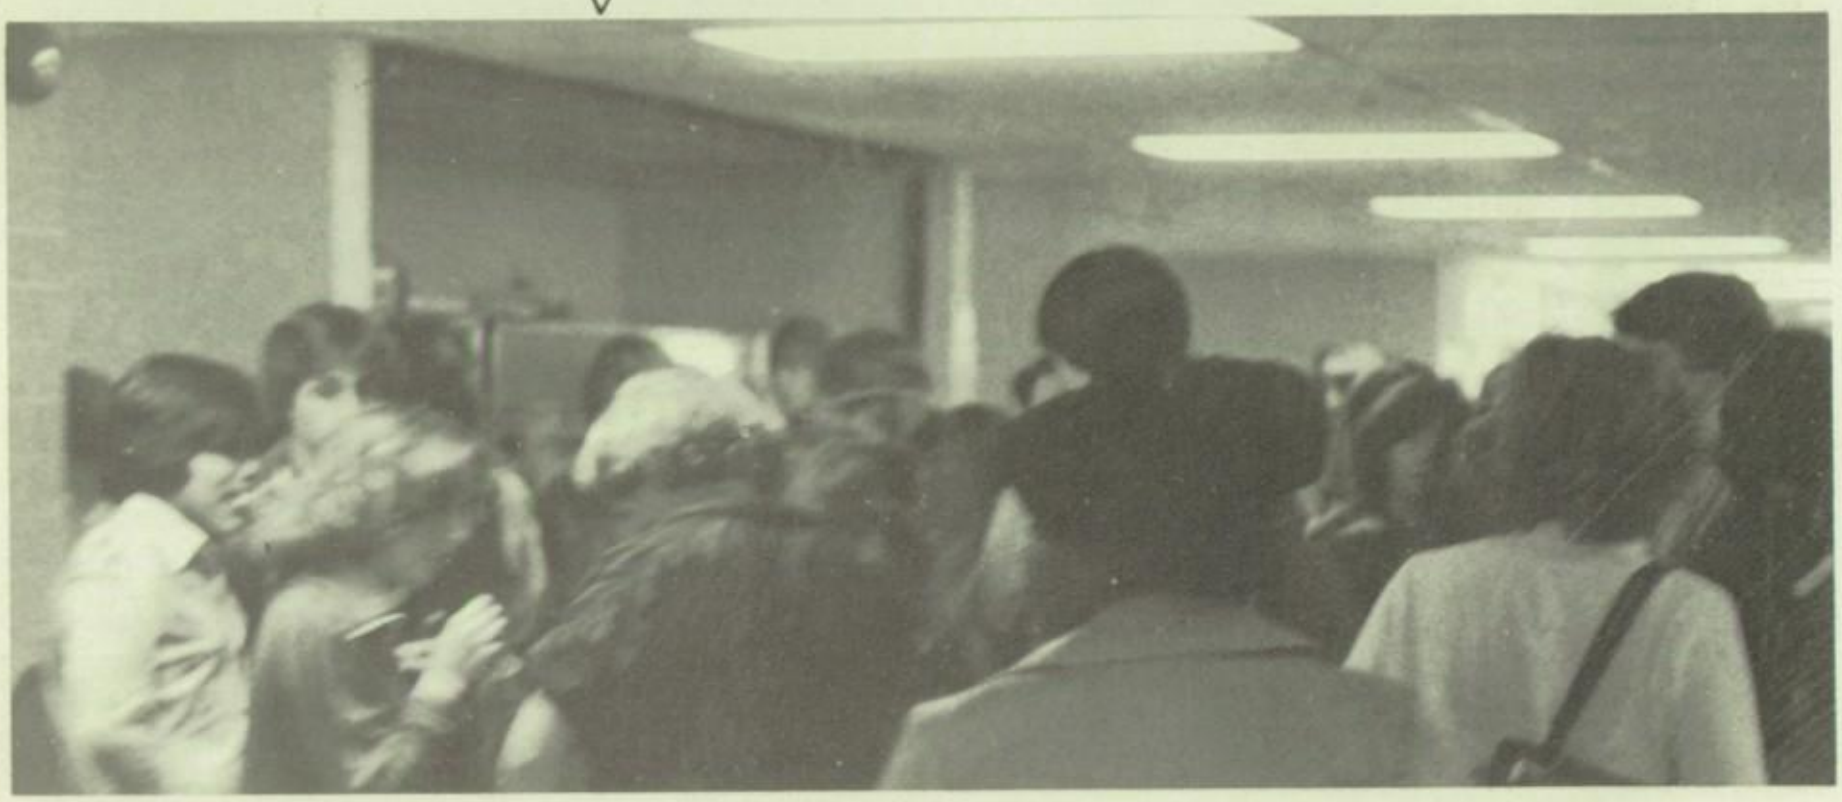
HOMECOMING



Happy Faces

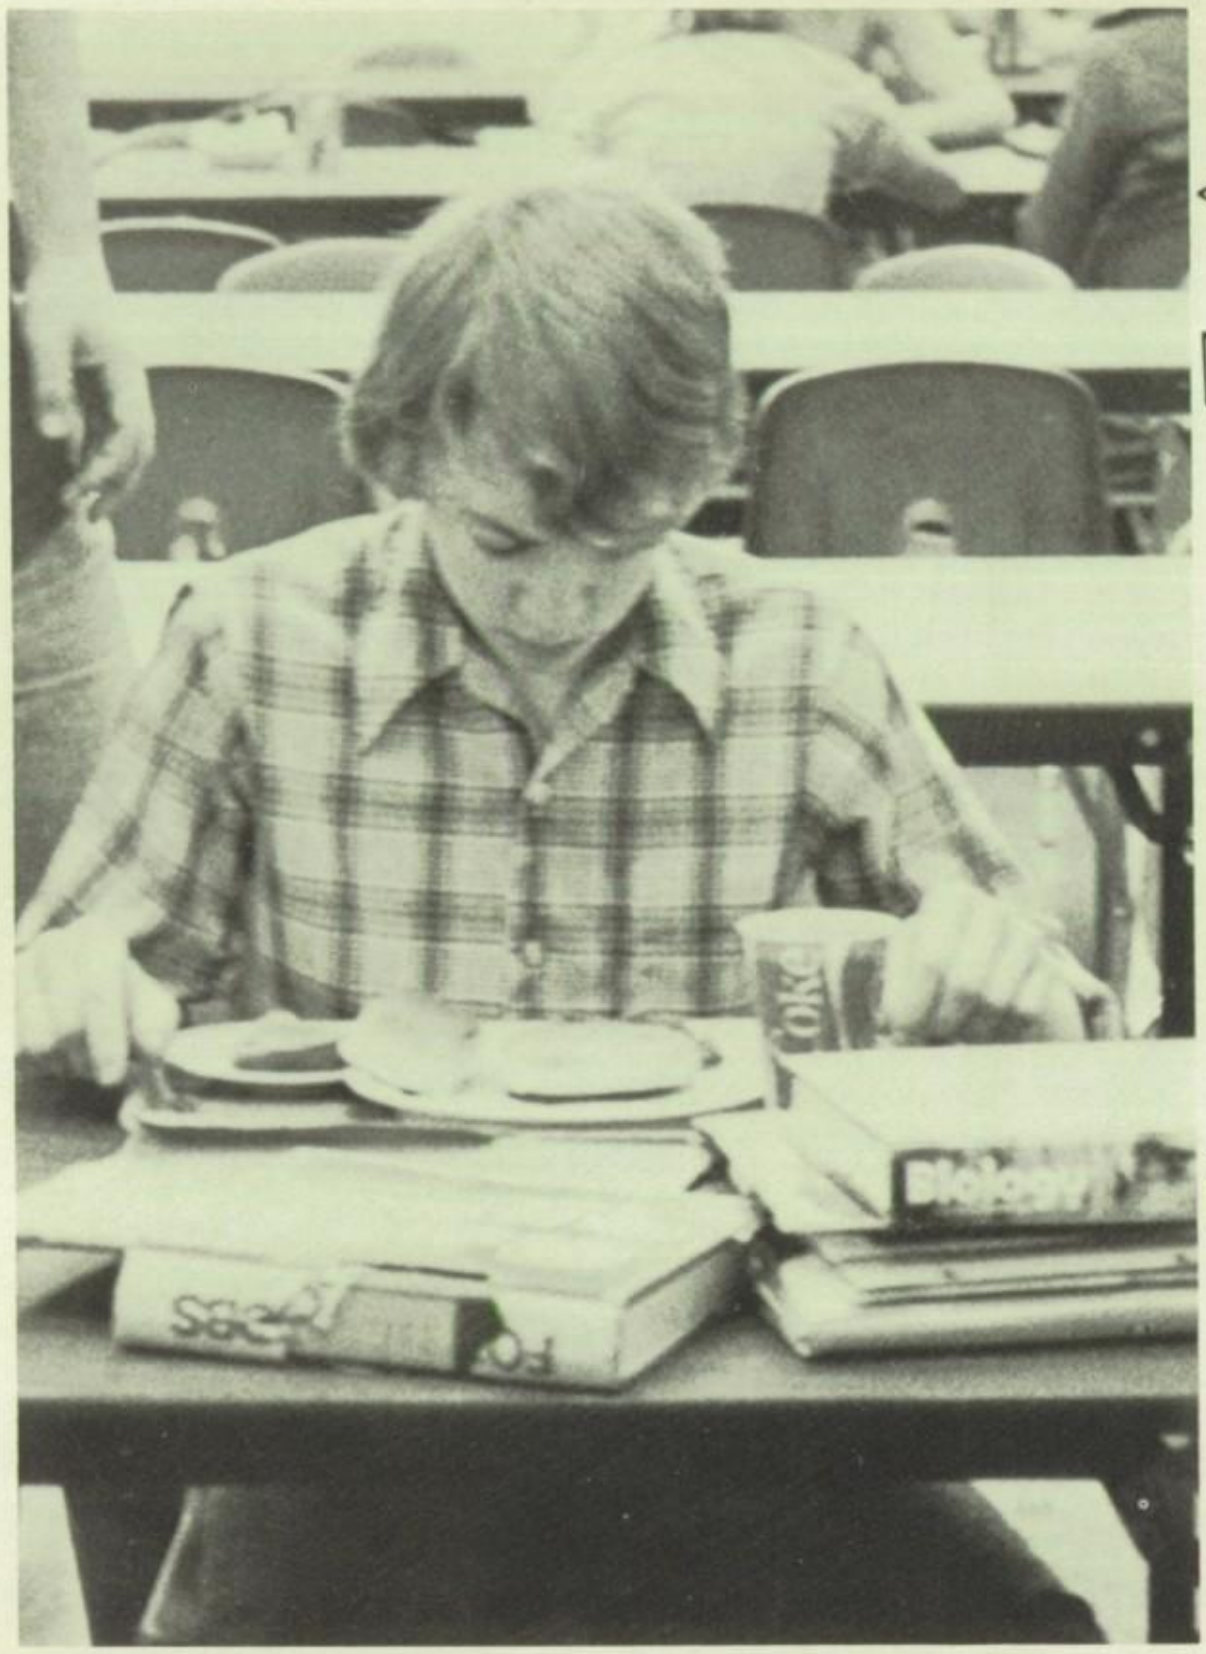
Lunch

Lunch is many students' favorite hour. Why can't it last longer? 1. Jim Kelly says "I'm so hungry I could eat a Longhorn." 2. Terri Connally and Alice Reeves say, "See the resemblance? We are third cousins twice removed on the Mother's side." 3. Diane Whatley says, "I feel like someone's watching me." 4. Jill Hicks asks "Why can't lunch last for two hours?" 5. A group at lunch socializing. 6. Terri Miller looks happy and cheerful. 7. Hey! Ms. Donna Watkins, teachers need to eat too.



Different People — With Different Appetites

For Freshmen, lunch is just another excuse for fun. 1. George McLaney wonders, "Who took a bite out of my burger?" 2. Just one of the many nutritious lunches served in the S.G. Cafe. 3. David Ortega takes a rest while he waits for the lines to go down. 4. Go ahead, Doug Litchen, dig in! 5. Diana Ogle dreams, "Where do I begin to tell the story of how great a love can be . . ." 6. Mark Harris thinks, "Will ya hurry it up so I can finish my lunch?" 7. Hey! Did everyone have to powder their nose at once?

Classes,

Lunch

and Still

More Classes

Lunch is a time when many people catch up on gossip, study, and of course eat. 1. A group at lunch catching up on local gossip. 2. "You're kidding! Cheryl Tiegs wants to meet me?!? WHEN?!? WHERE?!?" asks Wes Barnes. 3. Mike Hedges takes advantage of a break at lunch. 4. Susan Stone: Happy Face of the Year Nominee. 5. 6. "Senior of what, Billy Roper?"
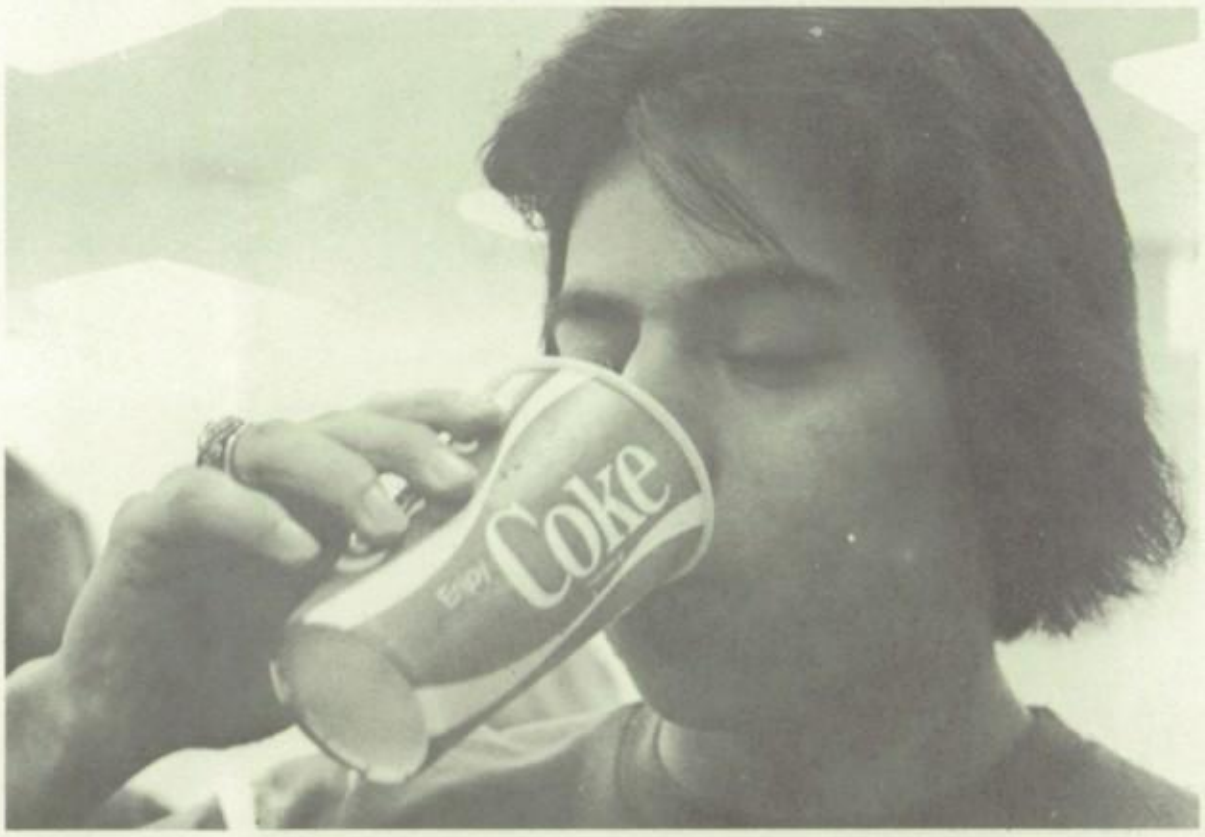
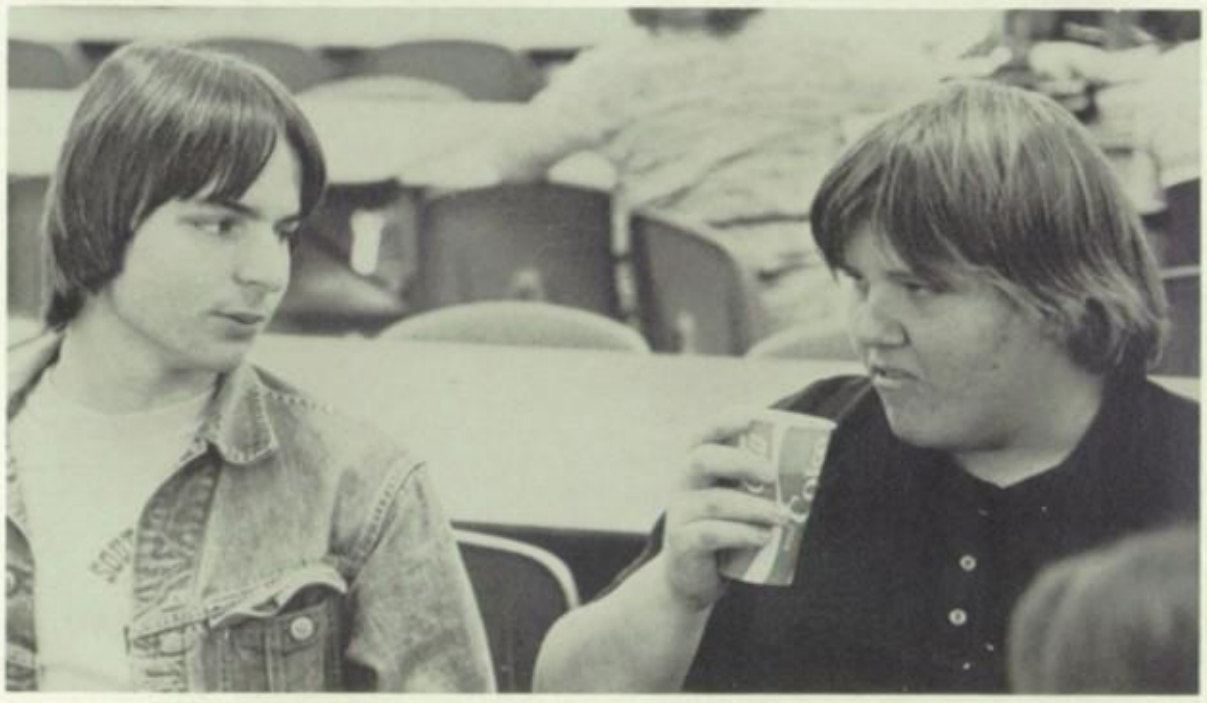
7. Hey Gaylynn Nolen! Were those nachos hot?

S.G. Students Get the Munchies

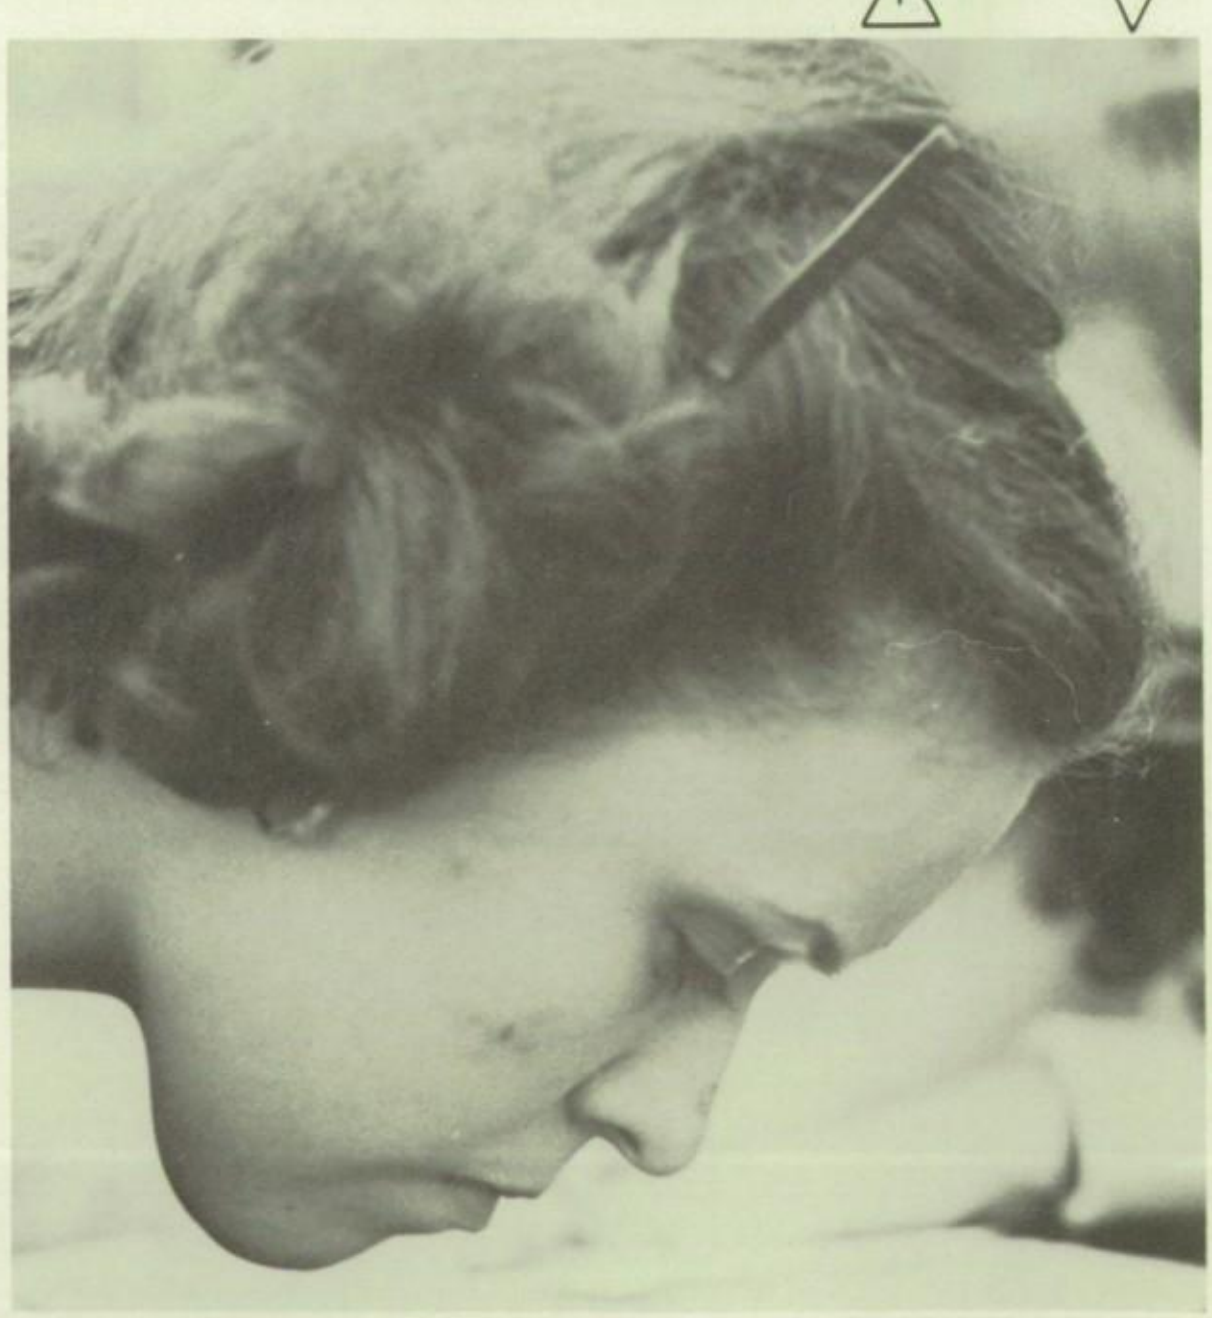


All three lunches at South Garland have their interesting moments.
1. Donna Eaves says "Thanks, and how much would you give for my mashed potatoes?"
2. "Want to loose weight? Try Third lunch." advises Marcus Vaden.
3. "Are there any English peas left on my tongue?" asks Lisa Bryant.
4. Jill Kennedy tells Pam Bellomy, "If you're going to buy my lunch you'll need more money than that!"
5. Kim Larsen asks "Are you sure I don't have spinach between my teeth?"
6. "Naw, you just think we are at Pizza Inn during lunch." says Dean Davis, Bobby Blaylock, Mary Tyler and Andy Stephens.
7. Joe Van Dyne asks Jimmy Freeman "What did you say you put in this?"



Whole Lot of Munchin' Goin' On!!!

Friends, Fun, and Food



The students of SG eat many different things for lunch, such as sandwiches, cokes, and french fries. 1. Pene Spangle looks as if she's in the mood for a good lunch. 2. "How that guy can eat so much, I'll never know," wonders Cathy Dunn. 3. Cindy Baxter says, "I thought this was peanut butter but it sure looks like bologna." 4. Mark Cambell smiles at the thought of a large coke and french fries. 5. Katy Greene makes up a test during lunch.

Seniors Have That Certain Flare

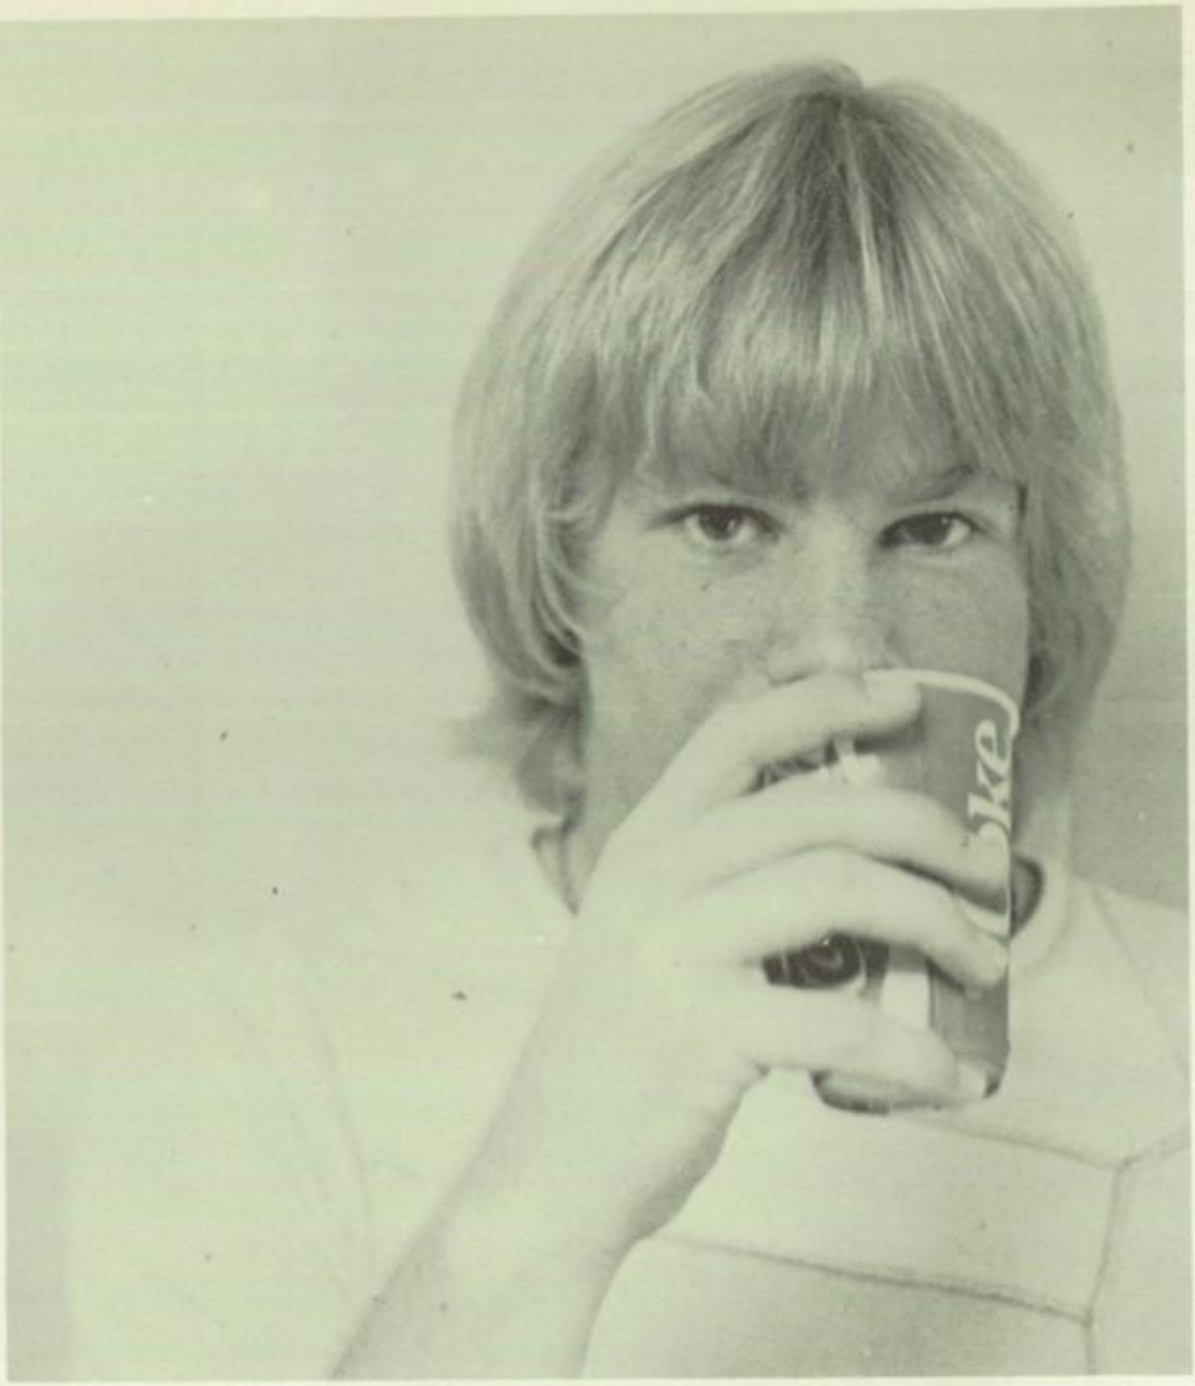
Seniors take time out of their busy schedule for lunch. 1. Rex Willeford winks at the gorgeous brunette sitting across from him. 2. What's up doc? asks David McDowell. 3. "Wonder if she would like to have some company for lunch" exclaims Doyle Bennett. 4. Jay Barrett enjoys his lunch hour. 5. "Boy, what a crowd!" exclaims Stephanie Hightower. 6. "Now, just where did she go to?" asks Clasine Vaandrager.



EXIT

Lunch Is the Time for Different Things

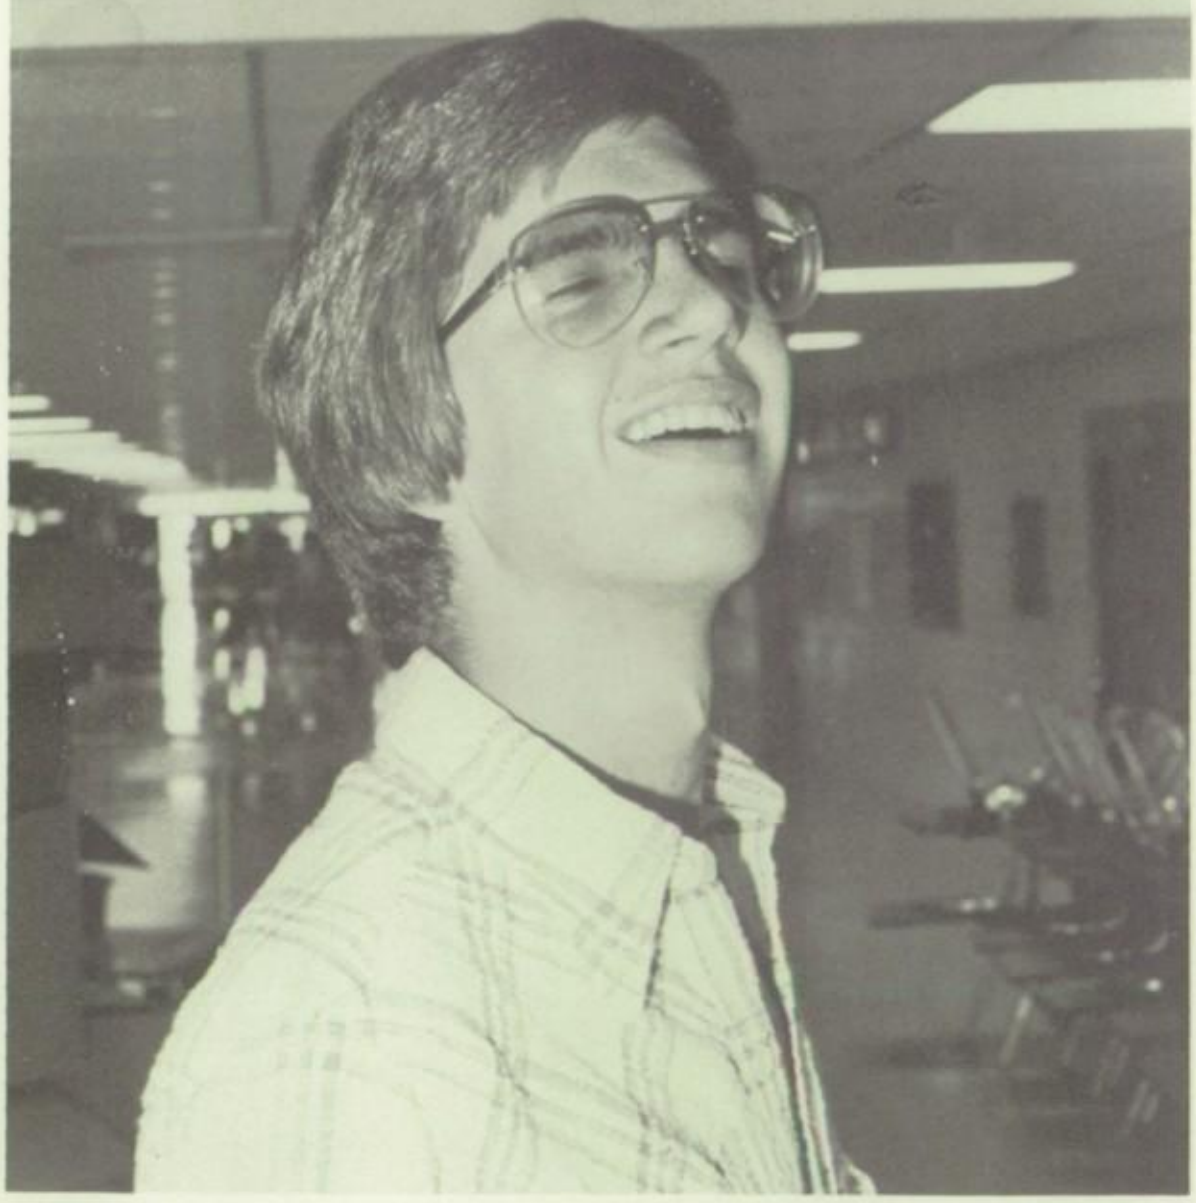
Lunchtime activities vary among different people. Some students do their homework, some eat, and others just have a good time with their friends.

1. Cheryl Brummett goes through the snack line for a nourishing lunch of french fries.
2. Grant Goens says, "Coke adds what?"
3. Susan Steadman, how about demonstrating that megaphone.
4. David McDowell leans back and takes a deep breath before plunging into the swirling masses of people at lunch.
5. Joe Reyna says, "I want some of that . . .and that . . . and . . .
6. "We're still the one" exclaims a group of seniors.
7. Problem 1: Calculate the density of a tuna fish sandwich.

Teachers Break for Lunch

Faculty workers take a break in their routine for lunch. 1. Marcy Lane doesn't like having her picture taken during lunch. 2. Loy Odom asks William Hale, "What does hot sauce and cookies taste like?" 3. Charlie White and Robbie Courchesne, what is Dixie Orten saying that's so interesting? 4. Ruth Youngblood and Becky Chiesa walk back to the counselors office after lunch. 5. Shirley Watson says, "You can't be in the halls during lunch either." 6. Jack Evans says, "And I thought it was Friday."

Lunch: the Students' Choice



As the lunch bell rings, the sounds of stampeding students, munching jaws, and friends greeting friends echo through the hall. 1. Becky Roll and Sharon Holt enjoy a quiet time at lunch. 2. Ronnie Wilson is all smiles about his lunch. 3. "Look over there." says Mike Davis, but Joe Venable refuses to follow instructions. 4. Hey Don Shelley. What are you so up in the air about? 5. Diane Whatley is Julie Tarricco disturbing you?

Lunch: The Time for Expression.

Lunch hour is the time that many students give way to various uninhibited expressions.

1. Steve Smithhart, Bobby Gaston, Greg Roman, Jason Simon, David Rodrigues, David Sappington, Russell Cook, and Mike Talbot all have piles of Colonel Spirit.
2. Mike Talbot leads the seniors in their weekly spelling lesson.
3. Lorna Edmondson says "Look, No cavities."

A Day in the Lunchroom

Lunch at South Garland is different things to different people. For some, it means a food fight, or frantic selling for a club. For others, it is a time to relax and enjoy eating with friends. 1. Martha Delgado finishes up lunch. 2. "Good to the last drop," thinks Mike Insuaste. 3. To Gigi McDaniel, happiness is selling Val-o-grams. 4. "The devil made me do it!" claims Tommy Power. 5. Jill Kersey, one shouldn't eat with her mouth open and eyes shut. 6. Gobbling down their food are David Daniels, Mitch Smith, and Greg Ward. 7. Haven Eskind and Brian Branum find hamburgers intriguing.

The Students' Favorite Hour Is Lunch

Students have many different habits when it comes to lunch. Some of them brown-bag it, others buy theirs, and others simply go without. 1. "If it wasn't for french fries I'd starve" says Kim Steele. 2. "Hey! Save me a seat!" says Mike Clark. 3. Mark Benavidez and Mark Harris demonstrate two different ways to have lunch. 4. A little snow brings out the kid in all of us. 5. Greg Bystrum and Robert Wilder, two hungry faces at lunch.

Eat,
Drink, and
Do
Homework

Students study, eat and drink during their lunch hour. 1. Martha Delgado and Carol Dulong eat with their friends. 2. Bobby Hall, are you going to eat both of those hamburgers? 3. Jacquie Martin and Carolyn McKee study through lunch. 4. Rusty Polston if you weren't naughty, why are you standing in the corner? 5. Suzanne Southard, are all those books yours, or are some of them Melissa Meeks? 6. Carol Mathis, Sherry Tankersley, and Laura Black eat, drink, and read.

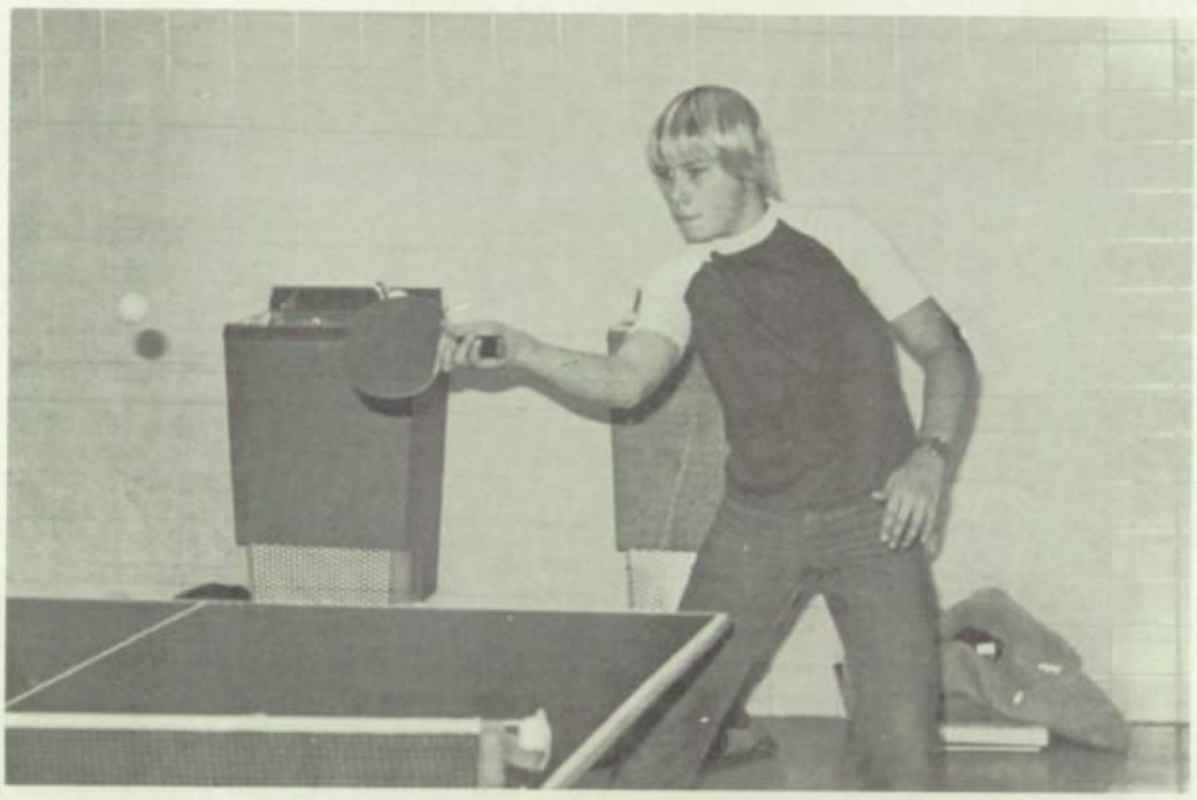
Freshmen as the Day Wears on



Most Freshmen look forward to the bell sounding at 3:15. 1. Hey, Mr. Irby Martin, Raliegh Sanford, Mark Whitt, John Willman, Liz Dillow, Sandy Smith, Linda Power, Johnny Johnson, Sheri Cox, and Debra Callaway, are you in the band? 2. Steven Summers thinks, "Only ten more minutes and it'll be all over. Maybe I can make it if I just take it easy." 3. As Dena Wilcox and Debra Birdsong look on, Santiago Mancha wonders, "Was that 25 to the left, then 19 to the right or 19 to the right and 25 . . ." 4. Jeff Moss confesses, "Can I help it if girls find me irresistable?" 5. "Hey babe," says Walter Randall, "Give me a call sometime at 844-7839." 6. Garrick Bousquet concentrates: eyes on the ball — proper stance — smooth swing — complete follow through . . . 7. Why so excited Patricia Owen and Diana Ogle? Another film about the Economic Trends of India?

S.G. students have many talents whether in Drama, Music or Academics. This year, the second play presented by the drama department was All the Way Home. Many students participated in some way. 1. Hey, Tommy Powers, Gigi McDaniel, Stan Hartin, Karen Brown, Mike Shipley, and Steve Smithhart! Is it just geometry you're analyzing? 2. Gordon Sorrells as Ralph Follett battles with his conscience. 3. Mati Markley played Sally Follett in All the Way Home. 4. Hey, John Riggall, you must have an interesting neighbor. What's her name? 5. Janie Boren played the role of Aunt Sadie in S.G.'s second major production, All the Way Home. 6. Thanks to Jammie Gill, our halls were decorated with many mechanical displays. This is the one he made for Valentine's Day. 7. Aylin Nadolsky had the leading female role, Mary Follett, in All the Way Home. 8. "Let's just watch that train go by," says Mike Keane (Jay Follett) to David Draughon (Rufus Follett).

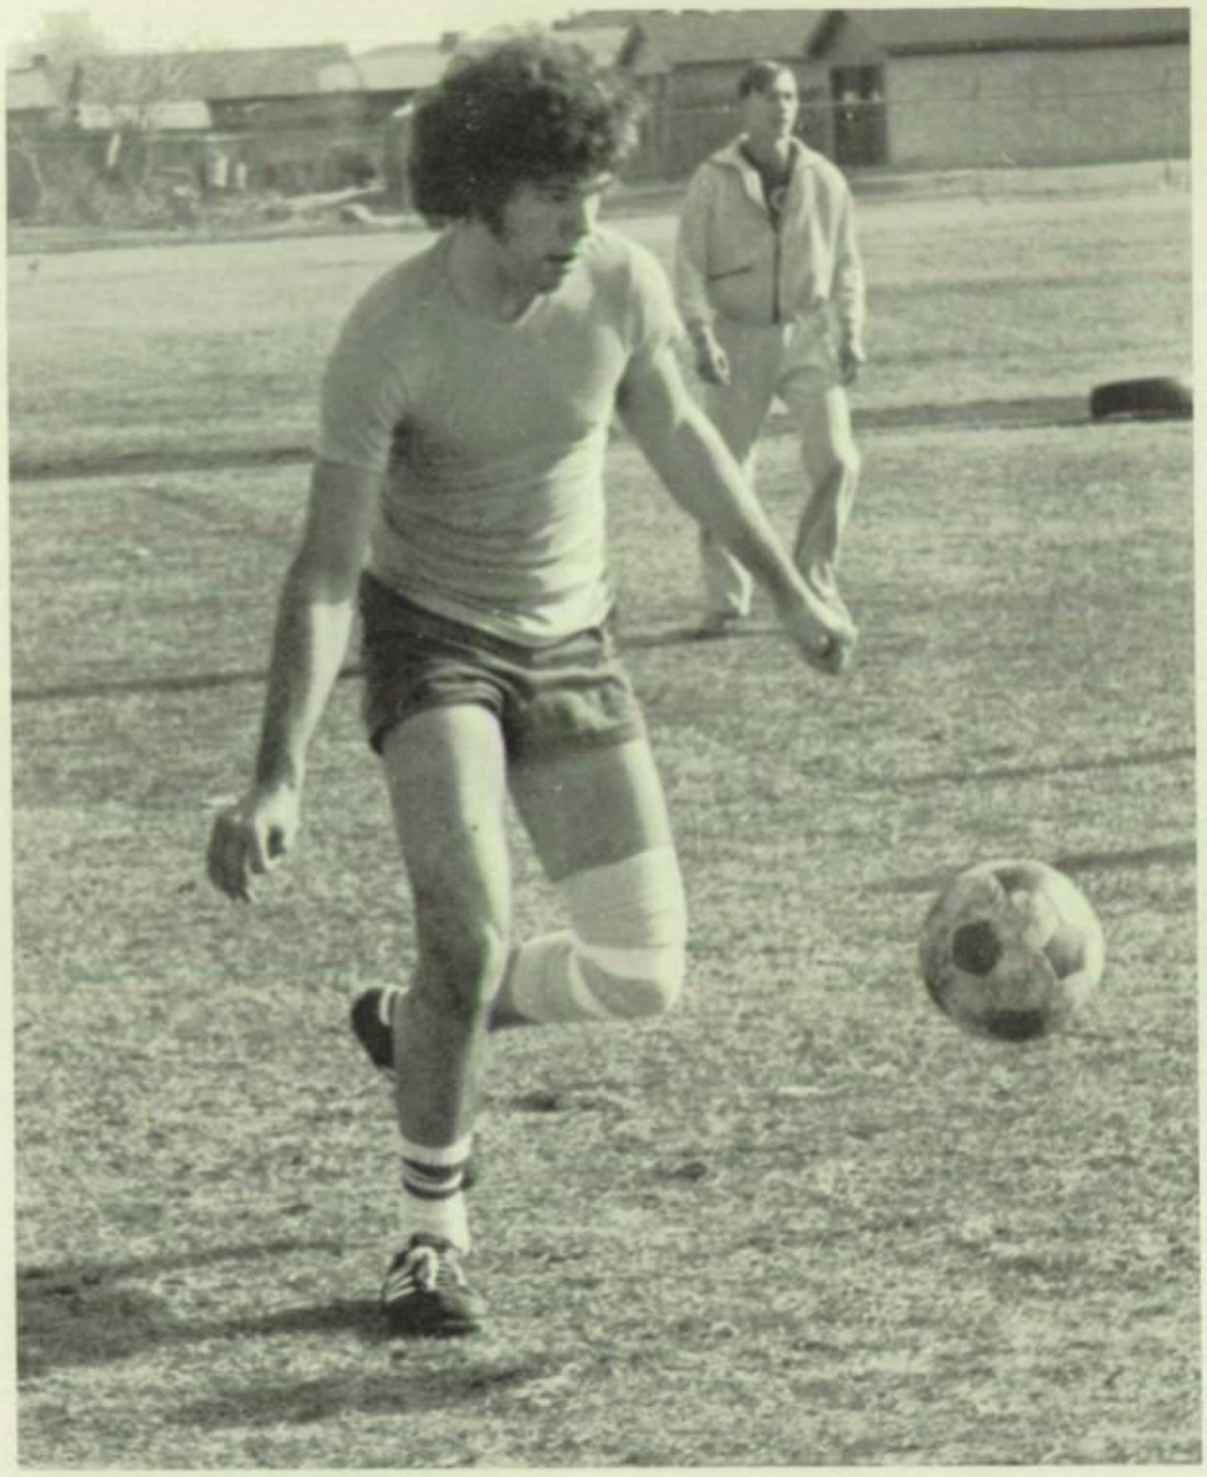
The Colonels Go Marching on

Over the Labor Day weekend many of South Garland's students took part in the Garland parade sponsored by the Jaycees. Among these students were the marching band, clown troupe, sentries, cheerleaders, Belles, Dixies, and the Miss Garland nominees from S.G. including Missy McBride, Cathy Hughes, Tammie Hurley, Diane Whatley, Denise Williams.

1. Colonel David Usrey represents South Garland, leading the Sentries on horseback.
2. Strut your stuff, Lee Stacy!
3. The S.G. Flag Corps leads the way.
4. Missy McBride flashes a smile as she rides by.
5. Mrs. Carter visits Garland for the dedication ceremony of the new city square.
6. HEY! Lori Lee! What's that?!



Long Hours of Practice in the Cold

S.G.'s soccer team is growing in size and experience as the sport becomes more popular throughout the country. While the soccer team is practicing in freezing weather, the track teams are practicing for future meets.

1. Bruce Rogers says, "Look how well I can play soccer, even with a hurt knee!"
2. Come on Billy Schmitt, only a few more laps.
3. Tim Lyke says, "Leave me alone, I'm cold."
4. Rafe Avery observes how Kenneth Trent hits the ball with his head.
5. This is the way Kenneth Trent gets his kicks.
6. Members of the track team practicing for a meet.
7. Danny David, Doyle Bennett, and Johnny Capp, just stretching the old legs.

On-Campus Activities Are Important

Students at SG have various duties to accomplish before they leave campus.
1. Donette Martin is entranced by the band at their practice.
2. Anna Barto grins from ear to ear.
3. Mary Donovon, Donna Stone, Pam Jackson, Debbie Turner, and Tracy Weaver run for the fun of it.

Intramurals:

Part-time

Athletes

Intramurals are the opportunity that allows every individual to participate in school sports. One can choose from ping-pong, softball, flag football or one of many other sports. If someone's sports ability is outstanding, he can become a "SUPERSTAR". Tim Birdsong became the man to beat around S.G. after becoming a "SUPERSTAR". 1. Tim Birdsong says to David McDougall, "We only have ninety-nine more pushups to go." 2. Rick Amburgey holds the ball for Dave Abston to kick the extra point. 3. Girls participating in intramural basketball. 4. Kent Swaner crosses the plate as David McDougall catches the ball. 5. Dave Abston takes his warmup swings. 6. Jeff Martin says "slow and easy does it." 7. Tim Lyke a pro ping-pong player? Well maybe. 8. Kent Swaner, is that the way they pitch in the major leagues? 9. Dave Abston throws a pass to Rick Amburgey. 10. Craig Edwards shows Kim Gull how to serve with style.

A Spirit Filled Audience

Pep rallies, part of afternoon activities, are a major source of spirit for all S.G. students.
1. Donna Searcy tries hard not to laugh at the photographer.
2. Juniors, Helena Lyczak and Donna Eaves, cheer for their class at a pep rally.
3. Jill Kersey flips over the colonel football team.
4. Bonnie Price says, "I'm a Dixie and I'm proud!"

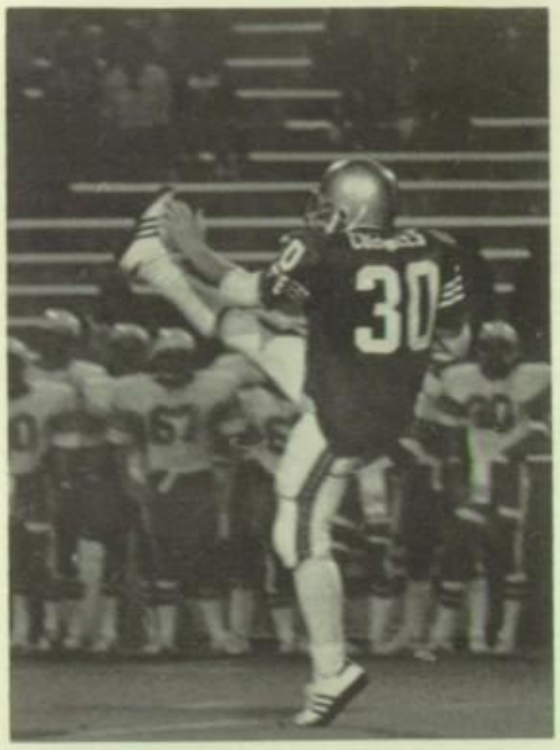
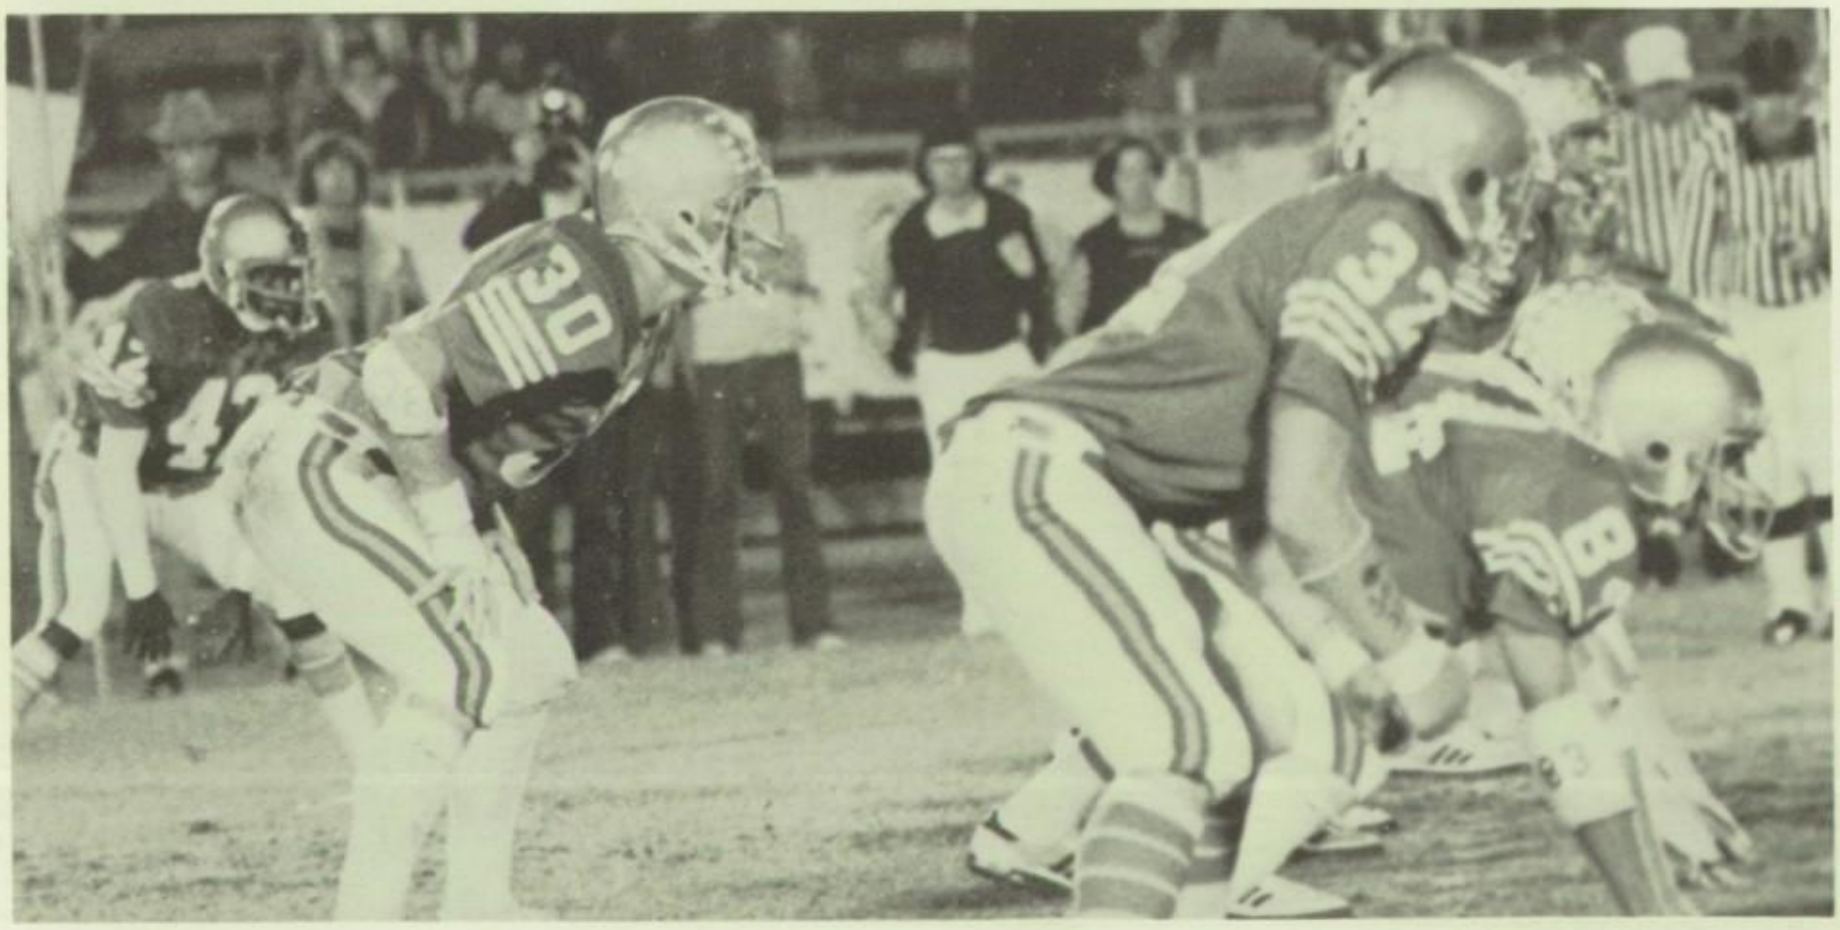
Different Strokes for Different Folks





Football; Where the Action Is

This year, S.G.'s varsity football team seemed to adopt the motto "When the going gets tough the tough get going." After a disappointing three game losing streak to open the season, the Colonels came back strongly and climbed to be an unexpected contender for a district title. Opponents, the Garland Owls, were able to defeat the Colonels 35-12 in that game.

1. Richey Rogers says "I should have been a Belle!"
2. "Hey, you got me muddy!" says Fred Breithbarth.
3. We work best when we work together!
4. Mike Sizelove says "I'm going to make sure he stays down this time!"
5. Nothing stops a Colonel, not even another player.
6. Drew Guthrie jumps to catch a pass.
7. Ready, . . . Set, . . .
8. Another touchdown, another victory!

Practice

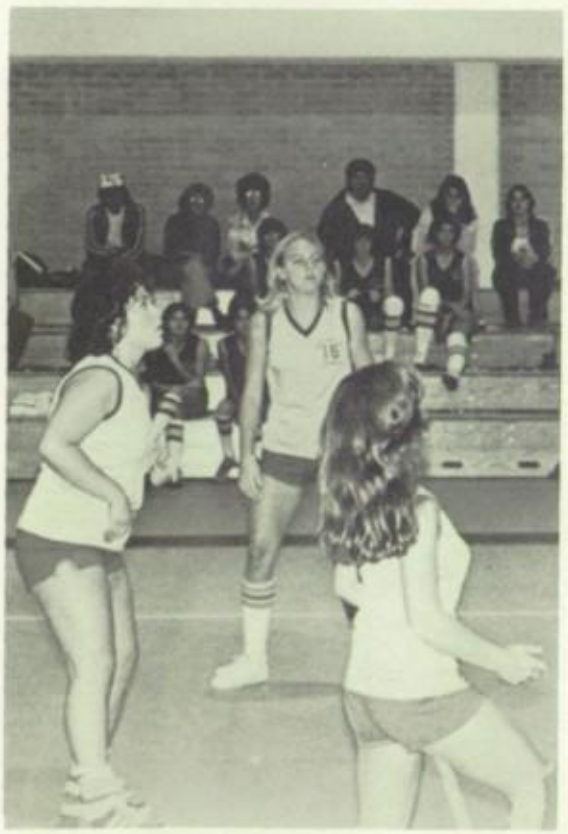
Victories



South Garland's sports program offers many different sports for girls. Among them are volleyball and basketball. Although these sports are entirely different, S.G.'s teams have some things in common. They all spend many hours practicing to be the best and have a strong determination to win. The varsity volleyball team won the Royce City tournament after defeating Plano, Rockwell, and Terrell. They were first in line for district until Garland High beat them in their last game of the season by a score of 16-14. The JV won nine games out of the twelve games they played to take third place. The basketball teams showed promise for many victories. These are girls to be proud of.

1. Karla Hudgins wonders if she'll get a prize if she makes the basket.
2. Lori Ambelang lunges for the ball, while Delores Hernandez looks on in amazement.
3. Kelly Moore goes up for a basket.
4. Rene Schwalm shows her skill, while Vicki Allen and Pene Spangle look on.
5. Karen Glover, are you traveling with the ball?
6. Pene Spangle to the rescue.
7. Vicki Allen knows how to keep the ball away from her opponent.

The South Garland Drama Department presents two plays yearly. This year the two productions were "All the Way Home" and "Arsenic and Old Lace." In the play "All the Way Home," the major characters were played by Aylin Nadolsky, Mike Keane, Gordon Sorrells, and Mati Markley. In the play, "Arsenic and Old Lace," the major characters were played by Carmella Watson, Mike Shipley, Carolyn Wharton, Chuck Perryman, and Robin Doss.

1. Carolyn Wharton says, "Who knows? If a talent scout sees me, I might become a star!"
2. "This is very difficult work," explains Kathy Alford to Mark Bittinger, "you must be perfectly still, or this mascara will get into your eyes."
3. "Lanny Smith, please be still, or this blush will never be applied correctly," tells Kathy Alford.
4. "Sometimes practices are very tiresome and tedious, especially when one can not get her lines straight," replies Carmella Watson.
5. While applying his make-up, Mike Keane ponders upon the dream of becoming another Clark Gable.
6. Gordon Sorrells is creating a much different image by applying many kinds of dramatic make-up.
7. After many hours of difficult and tiresome practices, the stage scene from "Arsenic and Old Lace" is left silent and unoccupied.

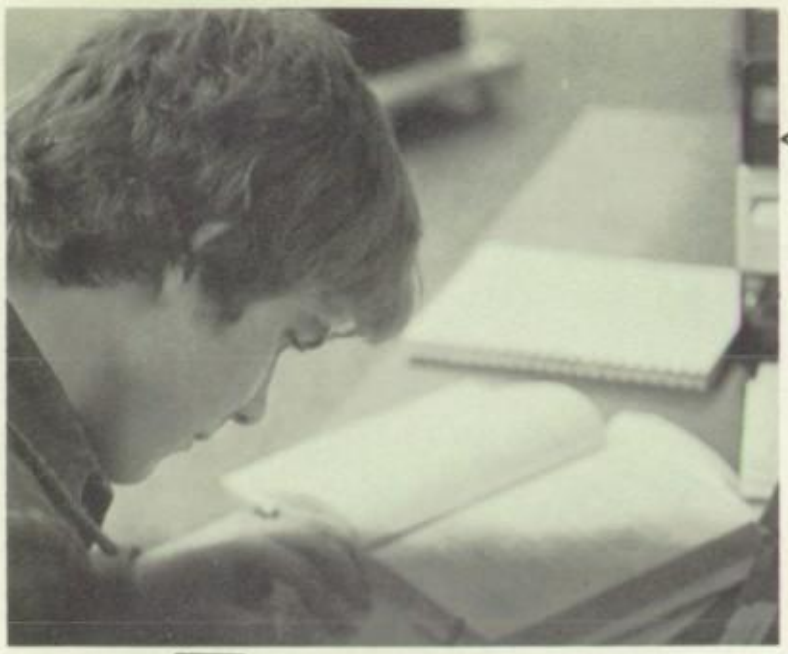
Seniors Do Their Own Thing



Seniors never fail to find something to do . . . 1. Steve Smithhart poses for the birdie. 2. It's a bird, it's a plane, it's superfingers, exclaims Bobby Gaston. 3. Is that research you're doing Bill Hittson. 4. Most people just write in their diaries instead of a computer Janee Bell. 5. Got time on your hands, Matt Williams?

At the End

Now that their first year of High School is over the Freshmen can look back on it all and say, "It's been a good year!"

1. There he is, Ross Woody, a wild and crazy guy!
2. Mike Burnett dreams, "You and me, you and me babe."
3. Look carefully, this may be your hand.
4. Look up in the sky — it's a bird, it's a plane, NO! it's the ceiling!
5. "What's the matter," asks David Baird, "Haven't you ever seen a Freshman before?"
6. "Rats!" exclaims Greg Jasso, "I didn't think that photographer got me!"
7. Paul Burton tries to show everyone that S.G. Band is number one.

Faculty Workers Are People Too

Believe it or not . . . faculty members have a human side.
1. Surprise Teresa Pritchett! We caught you talking to your plant again.
2. Ann Braley didn't ban coffee.
3. Carroll Barnes caught in the act?
4. Is the Grouch sneaking up on Penny Minter?
5. Beverley Carmichael thinks Math is a laughing matter.
6. It's not that funny Peggy Mullings!
7. Barbara Lyke, Faye Lay, GeorgAnn Bowden, and Shirley Watson have different opinions of a pep rally.

Garland . . . A Good Place To Plan Your Future

Garland, now considered one of the fastest growing industrial communities in the Southwest, could be just the place to plan your future. The industrial community consists of more than 300 industrial plants, employing more than 19,000 people, and producing an annual payroll of more than $110 million. Because of its highly diversified economy, Garland is an exciting, rapidly expanding community offering a wide range of employment opportunities for its citizens. So, when you begin planning your future, remember Garland is a better place to be!

S.G. SCRAPBOOK OF MEMORIES

Ronnie: Remember the day I skipped fourth period so you could have someone to eat lunch with, and so you could have someone you could talk to about personal things. Good Luck! A.H.

Sherrill: Remember the night we did the "slssjhccg" and remarkably enough, did not get caught? My pal, "dum dee dum dum"! Did "he" really miss a good thing? Alva

Debbie: Remember "cinnamon kisses", "The Mysterious Stranger", your famous necklace, and last but not least: 10 Minutes! It's been awhile and I miss it. Maybe next time. Frances

Debbie: Remember when we went to Kip's for lunch, drove Lise C.'s car to Rotary Club and worked on the annual all those nights? Thanks for being such a good friend! Love ya, Lisa

Jelly Morman: Remember bowling every day during lunch?

Remember when we had the food fight at S.G. and Sonny got hit with a donut.

Elia: Hey what are friends for? I'm sorry about you know. Hope that you and Chris get together this summer. Good Luck in everything you do. Rhonda

Rocky: Hey remember all our nights at Sonic. I do. Hope you work hard this summer. Hope you get your truck soon. Love ya, Rhonda

David: Thanks for the happy moments we've shared in the past year. I hope we will always be close. I love you, Tammy

Remember when Kerry Carter got sick at Bobby McGees, right when they brought our food?!!! Tammy

Betty: remember all of the coincidences on North West Highway?!! Lylas, Tammy

Tommy and Theresa: you'd better behave next year! Love, Tammy (Sis)

L.C.: Remember New Year's Eve, I loved it. You are really special to me. I'll always enjoy the Pepperoni Pizzas. C.P.

Jon, Ricky: Remember the Road Trip last summer, the Beach-Beeech-Cruzin' and of course Hoistin. Chris

Dear Jack and Niki — Bicycles . . . HO! Love, Lynn

Lonnie: I would like to wish you Good Luck when you play basketball for the Eastfield Harvesters. Sincerely, A Teammate

Brenda Brown: I hope that your remaining years at South Garland are the best you can have. I also hope that you stay away from all the guys.

Remember when Brad Riner spoiled the D-Room and got closet duty for the rest of the period. P-Graphers

Gina "Hooter": Gee you're really something special to have "S" super cars. Especially the green one. Lisa Bryant: you really need a piece of gum!!! Alva

Frances: Practice makes perfect and if you're lucky, by August, ten minutes could change from a short story to a novel! Ask Chris! Debbie

Linda Power and Johnnie Johnson: Linda remember when Johnnie returned "The Note" to you! He hasn't collected yet! Johnnie she's waiting.

You're such a sweet person, I'm glad you're my friend. (There, I've signed everybody in the whole school's annual) Sweet Adeline.

*Skip Talley:*Remember Roller Skating. (?) Guess Who! (Greatest)

I wish we could have played more than 3 Latin American songs during Marching Season. Too bad we had no leader.

Miss America: Remember all good times. Vicki Disco

It takes an athlete to play football, basketball, baseball, or run track, but it takes a physically talented athlete to play soccer. If you don't think soccer is the best, face BOGART

Remember Lisa and Mike? Remember Lisa and Steve? Remember Lisa and James? Remember Lisa and Jeff? Remember Lisa and Greg? Remember Lisa and the Marines? . . .

Kim G.: Remember when we went into the sound proof room in the school library.

Scooter: Remember the darkwalls, Rocky Horror, Play parties, and not be able to say goodbye? Good luck always. You know that I'll always love you. Stay in touch always. M.B.

Billy: Remember when we invented number ten? Good Luck in the future. May all your dreams come true and may you be happy always. Love and Best Wishes, M.B.

Carley: Remember the time we threw a party for Coach Calloway last year in fourth period? Boy, we had so much fun that day. Good Luck throughout the years to come. Laura

Woody: Remember all the things we did in and out of school? OH! What fun it was. HEY, Woody, Good Luck through the years to come. Stay sweet with the guys. Eric Kim and Heidi: Remember all the great things we did in and out of school? Good Luck in everything ya'll do. Hope we will be the best of friends forever. Terri.

Debra: Remember how the cop made my legs shake after Kara's party? Remember who and what we saw on the way to the party? Let's do it again, again, and AGAIN. Cherye Sanders

Stacy: You're the best sister a sister could have. I know together we can conquer the world, and everyone in it. Love ya, Julie

Iva: Rhonda, Teri, Kinny — I've had a lot of fun this year. Too bad we couldn't get Miss B. a hubby. Good Luck next year after we graduate. Srs. 80 the Best. Susan

Tommy Cook: Remember when square dancing was so much fun? Love, Abby

Cindy, Stephanie: Remember when someone shoepolished your car and "advertised" something? Gee, I wonder who it was? Alva

I got it pierced, now where's my Pepperoni!?!

My Lynda . . . In the years to come, through all the static and pressure which clouds our minds and makes us forget, I hope that your memories of us will remain forever loving. Billy Cunningham

Carole M.: Remember when Marvin W. asked you if your lips were in shape!

Laverne: Honey it's been a good year — especially Christmas vacation — hood ornaments, puppy love, semi-? This summer is looking good! Hopefully I'll get a chance to speak Canadian again! Run like-? Fifi

Cari (T): Remember . . . 9th grade — being trolls, going caroling, trances, African studies, Geometry, Town-East, Morrows, Pistachio Man, Girls Choir, falling down, being tardy, P.E.L.E., the Mass, and everything else! Don't forget! (B) Karen Gunn

Cari Young: Remember the janitors at Town-East and how they had to clean up after you when you couldn't hold it any longer? — Told you I would put it in here! K.G.

Remember when Stan Hartin called Mrs. Thomlinson a mitch?

Gin: Remember when we decided that almost only counts in horseshoes? Karen

Frances: Remember when you thought you lost your necklace while with your mystery person. Better luck next time! Debbie

Matti: You lucky thing you! You are now a Senior and your school days are over! I wish ya the best of luck in everything ya do. It's been nice knowing ya! Tonya

Karen: Remember when we went to see the play? Hot danishes are great at 11:00, aren't they? Hang in there, summer's coming. Gin

Peggy D.: Too bad you couldn't finish the card game. It was fun. Remember Hot Danishes at 11:00? Karen & Gin

Sandy: Remember the night when we first became good friends? We told each other all of our secrets before we even realized we did! Good luck to you in everything you do! Tonya

Sabre Staff: Remember when we thought we'd never get done? We did it! Congratulations! Good Luck next year. Ginny & Tonya

Suzanne Z.: Remember the time we didn't take my mom's car? (or did we really?) Do sailors really have more fun? Gin

Mati: Remember the fun at lunch. Have you seen any "birds" recently? Good Luck in life. Gin

Arrr Maties Mambo dogface to the banana patch?

Linda P. Riner: Remember when you were supposed to be in the hospital? Your three bestest friends.

Matti, Dana, Elizabeth: Good Luck — O.I.P. Ginny: are you still bananas? Mike and Raleigh: remember when two minutes equalled an hour? Jack, Thanks for putting up with me at lunch. Suzanne

Lisa Lykes, Doug Muphy, Scotty Dupree and Nicole! Remember the book fight and scribbling on notebooks! Last period, Geometry sure was fun wasn't it? Kevin "Fergie Frog" Ferguson: How's you trilobite now? B. Kool

Hey, Hey Big Jill, Remember when you pulled my keys out of the ignition and that cop came by? We've had some good times, and I'm sure we'll have plenty more. Lobster

John Edgar: Thanks for all the "Valiant" artistry in our ads section. We love you. Lisa, Lauren, and Linda

Sabre Photographers: We just want to thank you for your accurate work and your courtesy door slams. What would we have done without you? Sabre Staff

Remember when we beat Plano?

Remember when only Seniors wore Senior Rings!?

James: Remember our Christmas vacation together and New Year's Eve, All of the fun we had?! Lisa

Karen: Remember our "famed" double date with Rueben and Jeff? Wasn't that a blast! Have you and Rueben been for a walk lately? Lisa

Dear Student Body,

The 1979 SABRE is a break in tradition from previous yearbooks. Our format was altered to provide more pictures of more students doing more things. The theme of our book, a day in the life of a colonel, was chosen in order to include the varied activities of the student body at school as well as away from school.

I appreciate the efforts of the people who helped make this book possible. The photographers, the 1979 SABRE staff, the sponsor Mrs. Judy Garrett, Mr. Merrill and the faculty, and a special thanks to the assistant editor Lisa Herrin, are among the many.

In closing, I hope the 1979 SABRE represents this year and the student body of South Garland High School.

SABRE Editor 1979,

Debbie Tegarden
